Bad Martha Farmer's Brewery

"A Lively Brewery"

The brainchild of Jay Bergantim, Bad Matha brews an array of craft beers prepared from locally-sourced ingredients. The brewery not only offers guests the chance to sample a rotating selection of 10 craft beers but they also offer a few snacks in case you get hungry. Small batches of beers are brewed daily, allowing you to relish fresh brewed beers on-site. After the tour is over, you could also spend time listening to live music on weekends or indulging in outdoor games with your friends. The fascinating brewery tours, delightful beers, laid-back vibes and great snacks are just some of the reasons you should be headed to this wonderful place.

The Port Hunter

"Seasonal Delights"

The Port Hunter is a fabulous seasonal restaurant that offers diners a chance to indulge in a meal that truly showcases the best of what the region has to offer. With its exposed brick walls, contemporary artwork and industrial chic decor, the Port Hunter boasts a quaint, charming and stylish look that creates an ambiance that is warm and inviting. The ever changing menu features dishes inspired by the seasonal bounty of the land and sea, including delicacies like Calamari with Sweet Jalapeno Jam, burrata, grilled bigeye tuna over coconut rice and oysters on the half shell. Live musical performances are hosted from time to time as well, featuring some truly amazing local artists. The restaurant is quite popular and seating is limited so be sure to arrive early, else you may have to wait a while before you score a table. While you wait, you can enjoy a game of shuffleboard or savor a drink at the bar.

Newes from America Pub

"Well Priced Pub Food"

The readers of the Vineyard Gazette have named the Newes the best bar and pub on the island. The nautical theme brings you back to the 1700s and the charm of seafaring days. The room is dark and the main lighting source is the lanterns and the fireplace. The menu includes typical pub fare: tasty burgers, French fries, chicken wings and other appetizers abound. A friendly staff is willing to help you decide from the long list of microbrews and wine offerings on offer. This place gets quite crowded and children are welcome. Located next to the beautiful Kelley House.

Offshore Ale Company

"Peanuts on the Ground!"

When you're on Martha's Vineyard and craving a pint, stop by the Offshore Ale Company for a locally-brewed beer and a bite to eat. The menu features all sorts of pub favorites like seafood, burgers and pizza, including a never-ending supply of peanuts. There's always live music and special events, so check out their schedule for the latest goings-on. Don't forget to toss those peanut shells directly on the floor - it's encouraged!

20byNine

"An Exciting Affair"

20byNine is a seasonal restaurant and bar that seeks to offer its guests a culinary experience that draws inspiration from locally sourced produce, seasonal delicacies and exceptional craftsmanship. The menu offers a modest, yet delectable selection of small plates, including delicacies like short rib sammy with bacon jam, parm, north tabor arugula and crispy shallot, jambon croquettes with aged cheddar and smoked tomato mayo, and Wagyu flat iron steak for two. Each dish is perfectly paired with a small batch whiskey, or craft beer that perfectly complements and enhances each ingredients' inherent flavors. Known as much for its exquisite cuisine as it is for its stellar beer and whiskey selection, 20byNine offers a chance to indulge in refined culinary adventure that will excite both your palate and mind.
