Children's Book Trust

"Book & Games For Children"

Located inside a historical sandstone building, the Children's Book Trust is a reputed publishing house which offers an amazing variety of titles catering to children of all ages. They have a storehouse of biographies, children's reading, writing, cartoon and comic books, and other informational texts. Prices are very reasonable because this place is almost like a factory outlet. It is also a major supplier to other bookstores in the city. Fun competitions for children are also organised throughout the year by the Children's Book Trust.
