SoBeCa District

"Trendy Shopping Area"

Visit the SoBeCa District if you want to find youthful fashion, see great art galleries, and try wonderful restaurants. This shopping and arts district is actually called South On Bristol Entertainment Culture Arts, but it was shorten to the easy to remember SoBeCa abbreviation. The SoBeCa District celebrates different subcultures and you'll discover a lot of hipster stores and fashion. Walk around and see The Lab and The CAMP as well as cute boutiques.

Old Towne Orange Historic District

"Charming District"

Visit Old Towne Orange Historic District and step into yesteryear. This district is centered around the original Orange plaza and contains so many historical buildings, the entire district is listed in the National Register of Historic Places! Walk around the one-square mile district and see different architecture, including Victorian and Spanish Revival buildings. The district is also known as a top shopping destination and you'll find plenty of art galleries, boutiques and antique stores near the plaza.

Fashion Island Newport Beach

"No Desert Island"

With hundreds of clothing boutiques, restaurants, and entertainment, Fashion Island is the epitome of a one-stop-shop in Newport Beach. Formerly a small outdoor mall, it has grown into a combination indoor/outdoor shopping district, complete with fountains and promenades. It is now home to top designer stores like Anthropologie, Georgiou, and Kenneth Cole New York. In addition to the many shopping and eating options, the Fashion Island features entertainment events throughout the year, including the classic car show Concours d'Elegance, and the "Run for the Cure" fund raiser.

Center Street Promenade

"Perfect Day Out"

Center Street Promenade in downtown Anaheim attracts hoards of tourists and locals year after year with the Anaheim Nutcracker Holiday Festival but also makes for a wonderful place to be at on a lazy afternoon. The area features a pedestrian-only shopping district running for several blocks along West Center Street and is home to a multitude of holiday festivities and events. During Christmas, expect a visit from Santa Claus, as well as live musicians and carolers. Stop by at any time during the rest of the year to sample food from a variety of local eateries lining the promenade, or to pick up gifts in the many shops and boutiques in the area.

Newport Pier

"Fun in the Sun"

If the air inside one of the area's many malls seems too stuffy for you, head to Newport Pier for a day of shopping and dining right on the water. Whether you are in search of a quick buy for a day out on the beach, or are looking for souvenirs to bring back home, you can find it among the many shops and restaurants in this bustling oceanfront area. Here you can pick up an OC sweatshirt to properly emulate those moody walks by the waves, or get the kids some toy shovels to built expert sand castles. Then stop by one of the many kiosks for a fruit smoothie for the ride home, but before you go make sure to walk out to the end of the pier for some great views of Catalina Island and the surrounding beaches.
