A&R Music Bar

"Music and Drinks"

A & R Music Bar is one of those venues where you know you will always be seeing a magnificent show. In addition to the great live music, this bar also serves up as an after shows spot for its sister venues. The party continues even on nights without live music, with DJs and music video screenings providing the evening's soundtrack.

Skully's Music-Diner

"Live Music Epicenter"

Open since 11am on weekdays, Skully's is the place to grab delectable burgers, sandwiches and shakes. But as evening approaches, this quintessentially American diner takes on the role of a trendy music spot. Hosting talented artists, Skully's Music-Diner is the spot for those who enjoy scrumptious food with live music. From soloists to popular bands, Skully's Music-Diner covers them all on its busy events calendar. If you are looking for a fun place to bring in the weekend, then there is no spot better than Skully's Music-Diner.

The Shrunken Head

"Popular Hangout"

Known formerly as Victorian's Midnight Cafe, The Shrunken Head is a popular hangout and music venue in the Dennison Place neighborhood of the city. Catering to a variety of rock genres, like Psychobilly, Rockabilly, Ska, Gothic, and Punk, this venue strives to be the quintessential rock and roll club in the city. There's also a good selection of beer offered, including international brands. If you get hungry, then you can order a pizza from the neighboring La Galleria pizza place.
