Vaughan's Public House

"Eire in Downtown Hartford"

At Vaughn's, diners can rest assured that they will receive some superb food and pints of cold beer. In typical Irish fashion, most of the menu is comprised of items like Shepard's Pie, Guinness Lamb Stew and Beer Battered Cod and Chips. And since Vaughn's is family-friendly, the kids have options like Bangers and Mash as well as Fish and Chips in kid-sized portions of course. The restaurant also caters events and hosts private parties.

Rizzuto's Wood-Fired Kitchen & Bar - West Hartford

"One of the Best"

Nestled among various eateries and shopping outlets in the Blue Back Square of West Hartford, Rizzuto's Wood-Fired Kitchen & Bar offers Italian and American food at moderate prices. This restaurant has a large space which includes a pasta pantry, bar, and a private wine room. Guests can watch their chefs in action at the gleaming silver kitchen that occupies one side of the restaurant and those who want to dine alfresco on the patio can do so during the summer.
