Pavilion End

"A Nice City Bar"

If you happen to be around the Square Mile and are looking for a place to unwind over great drinks and food, then the Pavilion End is a lovely option. Comprising of two distinct bar areas along with a patio, it is just steps away from the St Paul's Cathedral. Its warm ambiance is accentuated by wooden accents and their amiable staff will ensure that everyone is well taken care of. This bustling watering hole has an impressive list of cask ales and draft beer, besides a wide range of wine. Catch your favorite team in action from their television screens or just enjoy a pint or two with friends in tow. Nosh on tasty bites for that nagging hunger pang or indulge in some people watching in the patio. You can be sure of a pleasant time at this bar.
