Park Café

"Something Different Every Time"

The Park Café, located close to the Botanical Gardens, is always reinventing itself. At some hours of the day, it comes across as a chic restaurant, at others, as a happening bar featuring the brightest stars in the DJ firmament. The coveted beer garden is a great place to enjoy the weather and cool off with beer classics. At any time, Park Café prides itself on the quality of its offerings, musical, gastronomic, or otherwise.

Wirtshaus in der Au

"In the Heart of Munich"

A comfortable and typically Bavarian beer garden, Wirtshaus in der Au is also one of the most famous restaurants in Munich. Although its furnishings are contemporary in style, it still retains all the charm of traditional Bavaria, serving the original Munich Schweinsbraten mit Kruste (roast pork and crackling). A popular feature here are their dumplings, which they claim are the largest in the city. The clientele is in fact a good cross section of Munich's population, as the venue is popular with local residents, business people, students and the hip and trendy.

Preysinggarten

"Longstanding Family-friendly Favorite"

One of the veteran restaurants in the neighborhood, Preysinggarten has built up a fine knowledge of not just local flavors but also impeccable service. It has been serving the neighborhood of Haidhausen since it opened in 1893. A wide range of breakfast options include scrumptious American eggs to yummy German sausages. The extensive menu also features a range of Mediterranean dishes, alongside pizzas, pastas and traditional fish plates to choose from. A small playground adjacent to this restaurant makes it a popular venue for families with little kids.

Chinesischer Turm

"Historic Beer Garden"

The tower which gave its name to the beer garden was built in 1789 as a viewing point and bandstand in the heart of the English Garden. Unfortunately, what we see today is only a reconstruction, as the original was destroyed in 1944. However, the musical connections have remained. There are over 7000 seats at Chinesischer Turm, where customers can relax and enjoy a Mass (a liter of beer). Tradition permits you to bring your own food along, but the food is quite decent and is sure to leave you satisfied.

Bodega Dali

"Spanish Specialities"

Several little portions of delicious food. That's the best part about a tapas bar, you aren't stuck with a portion of two dishes! The restaurant menu features an extensive wine list, with some excellent selections. The service is quick and efficient, with polite and professional staff.

Augustiner Keller

"Traditional Beer Garden"

Augustinerkeller is one of the most frequented traditional beer gardens and Bavarian restaurants in the city center serving big glasses of exquisite beer and authentic traditional culinary delights. The restaurant boasts of a cozy and old-school European decor, ideal for enjoying a sumptuous meal. The beer served in the sun-bleached beer garden is reputed to be one of the best in Munich. Students, business people, locals and tourists alike find this heritage place incomparable.

Kaisergarten

"A Slice of Bavaria"

Not very far from Leopold street, Kaisergarten is a great place to soak up Bavarian culture. While the indoor dining space is a cozy spot to relax and unwind, the leafy garden area, dappled in sun, invites revelers to taste authentic Bavarian food and chug on regional beer. The Wiener Schnitzel and the Kaiserschmarrn (Austrian dessert) are surely to be tried. A sublime ambiance, jolly staff, gorgeous Bavarian food and a reasonably priced menu, are all what make this eatery a desirable dining spot.

Nymphenburger Hof

"Austrian Cuisine in a Flower Garden"

The cuisine at Nymphenburger Hof is cosmopolitan, yet still displays clear Austrian tendencies. This is a pleasant, rather small restaurant that is exceptionally beautiful in the summer when guests can sit outside in the charming flower garden. A pianist performs several times a week.

Seehaus im Englischen Garten

"A Beer & a View"

Situated on the banks of Kleinhesseloher lake in the middle of the English Garden, this restaurant with adjoining beer garden is a favorite with locals, students and tourists all year round. Guests can relax with a beer and watch the sun slowly disappear behind the lake. If you get peckish, you can order from the restaurant menu, although this does tend to be quite pricey. Students will be pleased to know that you can bring your own food to the garden. Football fans may even get lucky and see the stars of Bayern Munich football club celebrating their latest victory here.
