

"Best Japanese/Sushi in San Francisco"

Créé par: Cityseeker

📍 8 Emplacements marqués

📷 by Loozrboy ©

Otoro Sushi

"Best Sushi in Hayes"

Otoro Sushi enjoys unwavering loyalty, and stands out as the neighborhood's favorite sushi place. Enjoy the finest sushi in a friendly environment coupled with exceptional service. The variety of sushi alone is staggering, with favorites like spicy scallops, unagi, kampachi and the house specialty O-Toro (fatty tuna). The menu is driven by Japanese specialties like noodles, vegetarian rolls and sashimi, each prepared using locally-sourced and freshest ingredients with hints of familiar flavors. The eatery in itself is very cozy and inviting, with a separate bar area serving cocktails, wines and sake.

📞 +1 415 553 3986

🌐 www.otorosushi.com/

✉ info@otorosushi.com

📍 205 Oak Street, San Francisco CA

📷 by elsie.hui ©

Sushi Zone

"Hip Sushi"

Sushi Zone is a hip-and-happening place for yuppies, students, Bohemian-types and everyone else who wants to have great sushi at low prices. It is usually crowded, but the high-energy atmosphere makes time fly by. The food is a treat. All the classics are here - maki, nigiri, hand rolls and the like, made with lightening speed from quality ingredients by the ebullient sushi chefs. The service from the wait staff is also fast, with a plate of great food or a glass of excellent Japanese beer at your elbow no sooner than you order it.

📞 +1 415 621 1114

📍 1815 Market Street, San Francisco CA

📷 by Mahmoud Fawzy on Unsplash ©

Omakase

"Top Sushi Restaurant"

Serving delicious and authentic Japanese cuisine, Omakase is a Michelin-rated that can't be missed. Located in a tiny space, this restaurant offers fine dining steeped in Japanese tradition. Choose between different prix-fixe menus, with each being as delightful and full of surprises as the other. Each course is also complemented with sake that perfectly balances the flavor of the dishes served and it's easy to see that a lot of care and effort must have gone into achieving the tasteful pairings. The culinary voyage you will experience at Omakase will not only tantalize your taste buds but will also leave you raving about this place for a long time to come.

📞 +1 415 865 0633

🌐 www.omakasesf.com/

✉ info@omakasesf.co

📍 665 Townsend Street, San Francisco CA

by Public Domain

Ryoko's Japanese Restaurant & Bar

"Midnight Sushi"

Head downtown to Ryoko's for arguably the most creative sushi on Nob Hill. The family owned and operated restaurant has dabbled in the food business for over two decades. Exclusively sourcing its fish from Japanese waters, it creates an imaginative array of sushi and sashimi. Start off with gyoza, beef teriyaki, or wakame-su with octopus. The menu features classics like salmon sake, white tuna shiromaguro and BBQ eel unakyu. For a thrilling treat to your palate, brave the Volcano Roll which is a tasty tempura shrimp sushi filled with cucumber, peanut butter and jalapeño. The best seat in the house is right next to the friendly chefs where you can catch all the sushi rolling action.

+1 415 775 1028

www.ryokos.com/

619 Taylor Street, San Francisco CA

by Resy

Tsunami Panhandle

"Kampai !"

Get a taste of the sensuous and tantalizing flavors of Japanese cuisine in a chic yet intimate atmosphere at Tsunami Panhandle. Top picks include made-to-order contemporary Japanese creations like nigiri sushi and sashimi, temaki, oysters and sunomono salad; which can be enjoyed in the cozy dining or at the swanky sushi bar. The bar stocks some of the most sophisticated sake selections, along with high quality Japanese malts and fun cocktails. The restaurant is highly admired for its service, making it one of the best sushi/sake places in Panhandle.

+1 415 567 7664

tsunamipanhandle@aol.com

1306 Fulton Street, San Francisco CA

by Ekoanug

Roka Akor

"Elegant Japanese Cuisine"

Attention to detail and creativity mark every aspect of Roka Akor, right from the elegant decor and remarkable cuisine to the ice berg shaped ice cubes served with drinks at the bar downstairs. The tastefully designed main dining area is centered around a Robata grill that creates a theatrical effect. This contemporary Asian restaurant offers diners a selection of Robata Japanese dishes with a menu composed of grilled premium cuts of meat, fish and vegetables with dressings like shaved truffles, Wafu and black truffle-infused aioli, sushi, sashimi, tempura, and decadent desserts. Perfectly complemented by an impressive bar offering of wine, sake, Japanese beer, cocktails and soju, a meal at Roka Akor promises to be a dining experience that will delight you. The Roka Bar remains open until late and offers a special food menu of its own.

+1 415 362 8887

www.rokaakor.com/san-francisco/

sanfrancisco@rokaakor.com

801 Montgomery Street, San Francisco CA

Ozumo

"Ichiban!!"

Ozumo is your destination for a quintessential far east experience and is popular among elite epicureans visiting the Embarcadero. The zen-inspired ambiance is an aesthetic illustration of futuristic accents and tasteful design that embodies a sleek and cutting-edge look that is synonymous with Japanese architecture. Bottles of sake that line the walls of the place double up as unique decor. The creativity translates onto the cuisine with an inventively-plated menu that defines modern Japanese gastronomy. Sushi aficionados are sure to love the contemporary rolls made from seasonal fish sourced from globe-spanning producers. Savor the likes of Tazuna, salmon tartare and yamagobo roll topped with snow crab and avocado, the Red Dragon tempura shrimp roll wrapped with tuna and avocado or Yasai Maki, seasonal vegetables with a tart ume plum sauce. Delicious seafood and meat preparations are freshly grilled on the traditional robata while the sake lounge boasts the largest selection of the rice fermented beverage in the country.

+1 415 882 1333

www.ozumo.com/

reservation@ozumo.com

161 Steuart Street, San Francisco CA

Ace Wasabi's Rock 'N' Roll Sushi

"Des sushis à San Fransisco"

Venez au Ace Wasabi's Rock n Roll Sushi apprécier les meilleurs sushis de la ville. Ce que vous pouvez espérer ici c'est un repas japonais chaleureux à un prix abordable. Le menu traditionnel propose des nigiri sushi, des rouleaux spéciaux comprenant du crabe au Ace Wasabi, des anguilles et noix de macadamia et des légumes, le "Three Amigos" au thon, et aux sérioles, ne doivent pas être manqués. Le restaurant est toujours animé de locaux du quartier de Marina. La partie avant du restaurant est l'endroit parfait pour discuter, dans une atmosphère semblable à un pub. Mais si vous préférez un repas plus calme, l'arrière est plus adéquat.

+1 415 567 4903

www.acewasabisf.com/

3339 Steiner Street, Between Chestnut & Lombard Street, San Francisco CA

REJOIGNEZ-NOUS A:

cityseeker.com