

"Best Bars in Birmingham"

Créé par: Cityseeker

📍 8 Emplacements marqués

📷 by ell brown ©

The Jekyll & Hyde

"For The Love of Gin"

Taking a leaf out of the literary classic of the same name is this quirky joint situated in Birmingham. The Jekyll and Hyde is sectioned into two similar yet characteristically different areas - while one of them is an edgy bar named Mr Hyde's Bar which serves eccentric cocktails made with gin, the more composed version of Dr. Jekyll resides upstairs and presents to you aesthetically crafted gin cocktails in tea-cups, watering cans or whatever the bartenders can get their hands on. Food makes an appearance too, with gourmet burgers and delicious pies soaking up this gin obsession. Even if you are not a gin lover, go to this place for the thrill of the theme. Who knows, you may discover that your alter ego is a hardcore gin lover!

☎ +44 121 236 0345

🌐 www.thejekyllandhyde.co.uk/

✉ info@thejekyllandhyde.co.uk

📍 28 Steelhouse Lane, Birmingham

📷 by Altnet ©

Purecraft Bar & Kitchen

"Always among friends!"

Purecraft Bar and Kitchen comes across as an effervescent blend of toothsome grub and chilled beers at every instance. The beer range is excellent, with more than 20 beers on cask and keg and over 80 bottled beers at any one time. With specials like fish and chips and scotch eggs, their food menu is designed to complement the choice of your beverage. Being located close to the Birmingham New Street Station, this place gets quite lively every evening.

☎ +44 121 237 5666

🌐 www.purecraftbars.com/

✉ info@purecraftbars.com

📍 30 Waterloo Street, Birmingham

📷 by SocialButterflyMMG ©

Post Office Vaults

"Why go anywhere else!"

As the name suggests, the front of Post Office Vaults is painted red like a post box but once you get downstairs you enter a light colored room, where beer samples are kept at the counter. Food is not available here, but people are welcome to bring in their own snacks. This craft beer bar showcases a variety of beers whether cask ales, keg-brewed or bottles from small brewers around the world. They are now up to 250 different beers on offer and the search for more continues.

☎ +44 121 643 7354

🌐 postofficevaults.co.uk/

✉ mike@postofficevaults.co.uk

📍 84 New Street, Birmingham

The Jam House

"Jools Holland Venture"

The Jam House is backed by ex-Squeeze keyboarder and TV presenter Jools Holland. The club is spread over three airy floors, the top one being an open-plan restaurant serving modern world cuisine. The menu is set, although it changes regularly. Music, however, is the driving force with live acts nightly, and even a traditional Louisiana gospel brunch on Sundays.

+44 121 200 3030

thejamhouse.com/

birmingham@thejamhouse.com

1 St.Pauls Square, Birmingham

by aerodynamic2008 ©

Island Bar

"Cocktails & Live Music"

Island Bar is an irresistible combination of continental cocktails, excellent live music, cool furnishings and boundless pleasure. A wide range of classic spirits and tropical tiki drinks offered by the finest bartenders are its major pull. The special attraction of the Island Bar is its cocktail masterclasses and demonstrations that enables you to see the craft that goes behind the making of a drink.

+44 121 632 5296

info@bar-island.co.uk

14-16 Suffolk Street, Next to Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham

by Adam Jaime on Unsplash ©

Sobar

"Trendy Noodle Bar"

A flashy, stylish bar and restaurant for the new millennium, Sobar brings utilitarian chic to the Arcadian Centre. It calls itself a Noodle Bar, a phenomenon springing up more widely these days, and serves deliciously spicy, genuinely fast food to business people and the fashionably lazy alike. It has a bright, clean and nice interior and you can choose to eat at tables or at the well-stocked bar. Either way, you can see your meal being cooked and it arrives with frightening haste.

+44 121 693 5084

Hurst Street, The Arcadian Centre, Chinatown, Birmingham

by Bobbie

Bank

"Restaurant de qualité"

Bank demeure l'un des restaurants les plus populaires et les plus réputés de la ville, attirant des clients de tout horizon aussi soignés que les couverts. C'est un endroit immense où l'on mange et se retrouve, accueillant 250 personnes avec élégance. Les plats y sont excellents et incluent de réconfortantes saucisses accompagnées de purée de pomme de terre, mais aussi des propositions plus contemporaines comme le thon mariné façon thaï. C'est aussi l'un des rares endroits à Birmingham où il est possible de déguster des huîtres fraîches.

+44 121 633 4466

birmingham.reservations@bankrestaurants.com

4 Brindleyplace, Birmingham

by ell brown ©

Prince Of Wales

"Traditional Drinking at its Best"

Moseley's most popular pub, patronized by students and locals of all social classes. It's very traditional in appearance, with one main bar and a couple of cozy back rooms, and has a solid range of well-kept beverages (notably Burton Ale). A tiki bar garden, cigar room and great selection of cask ales make the Prince of Wales a draw for locals as well as a few celebrities from time to time.

+44 121 449 4198

 theprincemoseley.co.uk/

 moseleyprince@gmail.com

 118 Alcester Road,
Birmingham

REJOIGNEZ-NOUS A:

cityseeker.com

Modalités | POLITIQUE DE CONFIDENTIALITÉ | API | CONTACTEZ-NOUS | COPYRIGHT (C) 2023 CITYSEEKER