Roomers

"Rooms for Leisure"

Less than 5 minutes' walk from Frankfurt Central Station and the River Main, Roomers offers elegant rooms and free WiFi throughout the property. Guests have access to a modern, top-floor spa and an international restaurant. The Roomer's stylish rooms feature dark wooden furniture and warm colour schemes. All include a marble bathroom, a Bluetooth sound box, and flat-screen TV with Sky channels. Overlooking Frankfurt's skyline, the Roomers's spa has a designer sauna, a steam bath, a whirlpool and a well-equipped fitness area, and a roof terrace and sky lounge are available as well. Massages and cosmetic treatments can also be booked. The daily buffet breakfast includes international classics and specialities from the Levante region. The hotel restaurant serves international dishes with a focus on grills, and drinks are offered at the award-winning Roomers Bar (smoking bar). A candy bar is featured as well. In summer, drinks and meals are served on the terrace.

The Pure

"White on White"

Flowing white spaces and delightfully minimalist interiors greet you at this ultra chic hotel. White walls, design leather chairs, white carpeting and staff members outfitted in white, create an extravagant ambiance at The Pure. While the fluorescent lights outside make this hotel feel like a nightclub, the comfortable rooms, top of the line amenities and a stylish bar, make this a popular place to stay. Watch your flat screen TV, with a cocktail in hand, and enjoy a little cosmopolitan relaxation. A spa, breakfast room, patio, fitness center, lobby lounge and bar are available.

Hotel An der Messe

"Refreshingly Different"

Situated in a central, but quiet location near the exhibition center, An der Messe makes for a welcome change from the giant commercial hotels that dominate the district. Each of the guest rooms have a unique character and theme of their own, that ranges from African and Thai decor in some rooms, to beautiful Art-Deco inspired spaces. Replete with suitable artifacts and great attention to detail, the rooms are a charming affair. Equipped with a host of amenities like wireless internet and minibar, the rooms make for a pleasant stay. Guests can eat breakfast out on the terrace during the summer. Though it's one of the smaller hotels in the city, this boutique property is exceedingly popular, and advance booking is highly recommended.
