Old Fashion Club

"Classy Club & Culinary Address"

While most people know the Old Fashion Club as a thriving venue for parties, few are aware that it features a contemporary restaurant of the same name. Under the expert guidance of Chef Gilberto Baroni, the kitchen whips up splendid vegetarian-vegan specialties in a private terrace. As the day retreats to make way for darkness, the club steps out of its shadows to make way for classy, rocking nights - enjoy its hip hop music, dance away to groovy tunes or simply lounge in its uber stylish and contemporary quarters.

Just Cavalli Café

"High & Mighty"

Designed by the versatile Tuscan designer Roberto Cavalli, 'Just Cavalli Cafe' is a meeting place of the high class society of Milan. The interiors are done tastefully with teak floors, small spotlights and comfortable seats with a look that changes once a year. A beautiful outdoor flower garden with sofa cushion chairs and candles, that complements the foot thumping music of the DJ, is quite inviting. Nominated as the "Best Non-Disco Club 2003", for most innovative style and glamor, this is the right place to add a bit of pinch and glamor to your food and drinks.

Shocking Club

"Saturday Night Fever"

With its vast interior and immense dance floors Shocking Club a 1970s-style disco-bar right out of Saturday Night Fever gives budding John Travolta's ample space to strut their stuff. From lighting to furnishings, the club offers an oasis of seventies kitsch that proves popular with models, beaux in tow; especially during Milan fashion week.

Alcatraz

"Musical Times"

Alcatraz is one of the most popular and well-established event venues in the city. Through the weekdays, they host a variety of musical concerts wherein a great line up of artists and bands put up their show. Come here over the weekend and enjoy to your fullest as the DJs play foot tapping music. From hip-hop to rock, rock, and disco, you'll find a slew of genres playing here. With a capacity of about 3,000 people, this venue has excellent ambiance and well-furnished spaces.
