Estadio

"A Game of Flavors"

Located in the heart of Washington, Estadio is a great place to drop by to feast on some authentic Spanish flavors. Under the tutelage of Executive Chef Haidar Karoum the culinary team offers a delectable Spanish fare of soups, salads, montaditos (open sandwiches), meat, seafood, chicken and egg dishes. The decor of the restaurant, with timber furnishing and iron panels, resembles a 19th-century Spanish restaurant. Though the restaurant stops serving dinner earlier in the night, guests can enjoy drinks and light bites at the bar that is open till late.

Jaleo

"Une touche d'Espagne"

Ce restaurant décontracté prend son nom de la peinture de John Singer Sargent El Jaleo. Une peinture murale énorme d'une danseuse de Flamenco, fondé sur l'œuvre de Sargent, orne un mur dans le restaurant et plante le décor décontracté de l'intérieur. Jaleo est l'endroit parfait où boire du sangria, goûter aux tapas délicieux, et savourer le paella. Des danseuses de Flamenco divertissent les spectateurs le mercredi soir.

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge

"The Spanish Flair"

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge will cocoon you in a wonderful Spanish experience, from the food to the decor. The menu is known for its recipes that replicate the cuisine from the Iberian Peninsula. Choose from their range of tapas and paella to gorge on and accompany it with some cocktails or wines. The restaurant is covered in hues of black and grey, with splashes of red that give it a vibrant feel. The best time to visit this restaurant is on a Thursday for dinner, when guests can engage themselves in an entertaining flamenco dance.

Cava Mezze Capitol Hill

"Grecian Flavors"

Cava Mezze offers generous portions of Greek culinary fare like gyros, tzatziki and taramosalata or salmon. Keeping its Greek roots alive, the restaurant firmly believes in incorporating traditional Greek spices and condiments like olive oil, pepper, oregano and lemon into each one of its recipes. The specialties include lamb shanks, moussaka and short ribs. Remember to leave room for the baklava at the end of the meal. The ambiance is trendy and low lighting adds to the appeal.
