Blackbird Ordinary

"Extraordinary"

Blackbird Ordinary is a favorite on the Miami bar scene. The decor is inspired by a Mad Men, 1950s and 60s-type lounge with its black leather booths and dim lighting. Blackbird Ordinary prides itself on being the type of place anyone can come, feel comfortable and have a good time. The menu features a host of original, signature cocktails as well as the usual suspects. For entertainment, the bar has classic games like Jenga and Rock Em Sock Em Robots available. The bar hosts live music acts on its outdoor stage frequently.

The Corner

"Crafted Cocktails"

From the outside, this little bar might seem like any other dingy dive, but step inside and you will find yourself in a cocktail connoisseur's dream. Visitors can choose from classic, pre-Prohibition Era cocktails or order from the list of new, creative specialty cocktails. Or why not try both? Moonshine and Absinthe are combined with freshly made mixers and classy accoutrements for a drink like you've never had in your life. The vest-clad bartenders are happy to help you with any cocktail conundrums you may encounter or even mix up a custom cocktail on the fly just for you.

1306 Miami

"Old World Opulence Meets Miami Skyline"

Choose from a selection of plush indoor and outdoor seating, then sit back with friends and savor delicious cocktails from 1306 Miami. This recently opened venue is open seven days a week and caters to a younger crowd of 20 and 30 somethings out for a night on the town. Couples and friends mingle over marble tables lit by candlelight, while expert bartenders whip up artisan craft cocktails. The bar offers a catered aperitivo menu that is available throughout the evening, though you may want to hit the snack bar early, as bites are complimentary during the bar's happy hour from 5 pm to 8 pm.

Cafeina Wynwood Lounge

"Chic Lounge"

This lush and modern lounge has been a favorite in Miami since its opening. Visitors can choose to grab a seat in the dimly lit main lounge or head out to the beautiful patio surrounded by greenery. Try some of their delicious signature cocktails like their Cafe Con Leche Martini or go for something more substantial from the kitchen. The food offerings are tapas-style New American dishes inspired by tropical Miami's atmosphere and native ingredients. The art gallery showcases an impressive collection of works by renowned global artists.

Foxhole

"Upscale Yet Casual"

Foxhole Bar is a favorite in South Beach. The bar has all the fun of a comfortable pub along with the decor of an upscale lounge. The two-story watering hole is full of all kinds of games from classic bar games like pool and darts to 1980s arcade games like Ms. Pac Man. All kinds of people can come to the Foxhole and have a good time, whether you're the South Beach clubby type or a strictly no-frills drinker. The bar is full of different, comfortable lounge areas for people who just want to sit around and have a good time with friends.

Mango's Tropical Cafe

"Animal Print Extravaganza"

This is beach-front dining with a tropical theme. The café menu features island-inspired lunch and dinner entrees. The wait staff is definitely an attraction, sporting skin-tight, leopard-print uniforms. The occasional group dance routine keeps things interesting for diners and passers-by alike. Things really heat up around 9p, when a live band plays upbeat Latin music. It can be hard to manoeuvre past the businessmen and tourists who come to Mango's Tropical Cafe to down shots, so come early.

Broken Shaker

"Interesting Cocktails"

The Broken Shaker, located in the Freehand Miami Hostel, began as a pop-up bar, and got so popular that they set up shop permanently. The specialty cocktail menu changes with frequency, according to the fresh ingredients they have on hand for the day, week or season. Many of the ingredients are grown at the bar's very own herb garden. Grab a seat in the cozy bar or on the beautiful brick patio and gardens to enjoy your signature creation.
