Arts District Flea

"Locally Made"

This urban indoor flea market is spread out over 10,000 square feet of space with gorgeous vaulted ceilings and exposed brickwork. Tucked away in the Arts District in downtown Los Angeles, the Arts District Flea is an amalgamation of vendors with locally made products and handcrafted items. Find delicate silver bow necklaces or a gorgeous sturdy reclaimed wood coffee table. Local art can also be found here, adding a pop of color and character to your space.

Farmers Market Fall Festival

"Pour que toute la famille s'amuse"

Chaque année, à la fin du mois d'octobre, le Los Angeles Farmers Market accueille le Fall Festival (Festival d'automne). Celui-ci est une célébration de l'Oktoberfest, avec des sculptures de citrouilles, de la danse et des concerts. Pour les enfants, il y a un mini zoo, ainsi que des ateliers artisanaux. Le Farmers Market Festival est une excellente sortie pour la famille, afin de célébrer l'arrivée de la saison.

Santa Monica Certified Farmers' Markets

"Organic, Pesticide-free Produce"

If you're looking for fresh and healthy produce, this is the market. It is held twice a week, on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The Saturday market comprises of about 30 vendors and farmers; all of their produce is either organically grown, or if not certified organic: at least pesticide-free. Parking is available on the nearby streets and also in several parking structures in the vicinity. Credit cards may be accepted, but it will vary by vendor.
