Chuffed

"But First, Coffee"

Chuffed is for those who are tired of having the same old conventional coffee and want to try something new. As soon as you enter the cafe, you will be swept off your feet by the delicious aromas of freshly brewed coffee. The homemade Espresso, Latte, the filter or the regular, no matter what you order, you will find yourself being impressed by the thought and care put into it. The place gives out a very inviting vibe and the people serving you know the worth of a great cup of coffee. So next time you get a coffee craving, just push open the door to Chuffed.

Cafe Melba

"A Peach on Vulcan Lane"

This central cafe throngs with a diverse range of Aucklanders, enjoying light meals and good coffee as they people watch on this busy side street. Artwork hangs on neutral toned walls. The windows and doors at the front open wide to give it an alfresco feeling. Light meals are served, such as Thai chicken in red curry with Jasmine rice; smoked salmon mash with poached eggs and Hollandaise; or French toast with seared banana, bacon and maple syrup. They do excellent coffee and are also licensed.
