Lion Coffee

"Coffee from the Islands"

Located near the corner of 2nd Street and Market Street, Lion Coffee is America's oldest major coffee company. Their dining area consists of high ceilings, large street front windows, concrete floors, and an array of furnishings that include whicker chairs and tables and chairs along the walls. They offer many coffee and tea items, along with Hawaiian Smoothies like North Shore Berry (raspberry, strawberry, and wild berry) and Ghirardelli Hot Chocolate. Even if you are unable to visit this coffeehouse, this place does offer many of their items online. Lion Coffee also works with non-profit organizations to help them raise funds by sending them coffee to re-sell and allowing them to keep 20% of the funds. - Erick Pettersen

The San Diego House

"International Coffees & Teas"

Located in San Diego's Historic Old Town, The San Diego House is housed within a Spanish adobe. They sell various coffees and teas, as well as various packages of whole bean coffees and loose leaf teas. Many of their coffees and teas are imported from all over the world, including premium altura beans grown in Mexico's highlands. They also offer a wide selection of pastries and old fashioned sodas, among which Sarsaparilla is a common item. - Erick Pettersen
