The Guild Shop

"Great Deals on Home Goods"

The Guild Shop is a great consignment shop where you can find cool items for your home at bargain prices. You can find almost anything here, from kitchen items to musical instruments, hats to wall art, and everything in between. The longer a particular item is in the store, the more the price goes down, so you can decide if you want to gamble and see if the price will continue to drop, or if you want to grab it while it's still available. With a plethora of items to browse through, it's only a matter of time before you find something you quite simply can't live without — better snag it now while it's still available!

More Than You Can Imagine

"Find the Best Deals on Consignment"

Cosabella lingerie, D&G eyewear, Cartier watches - these are a few of every girl's favorite things. Find them at More Than You Can Imagine. Second-hand clothing has a new caché, one that says that being thrifty and environmentally conscious is good for the soul and for the closet. Consignment shops, once the domain of Salvation Army and Goodwill, are now of boutique quality carrying top-of-the-line designer labels.
