L'E18hteen fut récompensé par le prix du meilleur nouveau restaurant du pays, remis par En Route Magazine, la revue d'Air Canada. Situé dans un bâtiment datant du XVIIIe siècle, il est orné d'une chute d'eau en mosaïque, juste derrière le bar, de sofas en cuir et de lumières tamisées, pour un ambiance intime. Son menu propose de la viande et du poisson, cuisinés avec créativité et accompagnés d'une carte de vin, qui fut élue meilleure carte de vins par les critiques gastronomiques. Combinez votre plat avec un de ses vins, et vous comprendrez pourquoi son slogan est flights (vols). Le soir, des DJs viendront mettre de l'ambiance et vous faire danser.
