The Biltmore Cabaret

"Go Back in Time"

The Cabaret Biltmore is an amalgamation of old time glory and new age elegance. The aim of the club is to introduce Vancouver to some classy entertainment. This is done by encouraging local talent and presenting myriad of renowned international names every night. The club brings together New Orleans, Gothic Bordello, Rock Club and 1940's Shanghai Show, giving audiences a taste of cabaret in these times. Live music shows, comedy acts and fashion shows dominate the events schedule. The club also offers their spacious and comfortable green rooms for bands and performers. Old is truly gold at Biltmore!

Bar None

"Exclusive, Funky Hangout"

This establishment is part of the city's fluid club scene. Bar None is an oasis for chic, fashion-forward Vancouverites. And you can tell by the fusion décor, cigar humidor and martini bar that this is the hangout of the city's young, urban professionals: it is sleek, ultra hip and funky. Nightly entertainment ranges from live bands to DJs. There is a dress code in effect, so avoid wearing sneakers or denim. Considered one of the places to be, get there early to avoid waiting in line.

Commodore Ballroom

"Excellent Concert Venue"

After closing its doors in the mid-1990s amid protests from patrons and famous musicians, the recently refurbished and re-opened ballroom is making a bouncy comeback. Its dance floor lies atop tires that make everyone move. The 990-capacity venue, located in downtown, has a history of amazing performances ranging from Dizzy Gillespie and Tina Turner to Nirvana and the Clash, along with modern artists like Stereolab and the Flaming Lips. Its location in the entertainment hub makes it a perfect place to see a show before going clubbing. Call ahead for current event details.

Celebrities

"Premier LGBT Nightclub"

One of Canada's biggest LGBT nightclubs, Celebrities is a veritable haunt for all the night owls in the city and has been around since 80's!. This larger-than-life, multi-storied club is dotted with numerous bars and comfortable lounges where you can take a breather from all that action. The vast dance floor is usually crowded with beautiful people who let their hair down to the tunes of the resident DJ and various live acts by international artists, from Boy George to Bob Sinclair and Tiesto. Colorful events, drag shows, weekly themed nights and live gigs keep you entertained as you get a taste of the city's vibrant nightlife. The space can also be rented for business meetings and parties, and the club also offers catering services. Check website for more details on current and upcoming events.
