The Biltmore Cabaret

"Go Back in Time"

The Cabaret Biltmore is an amalgamation of old time glory and new age elegance. The aim of the club is to introduce Vancouver to some classy entertainment. This is done by encouraging local talent and presenting myriad of renowned international names every night. The club brings together New Orleans, Gothic Bordello, Rock Club and 1940's Shanghai Show, giving audiences a taste of cabaret in these times. Live music shows, comedy acts and fashion shows dominate the events schedule. The club also offers their spacious and comfortable green rooms for bands and performers. Old is truly gold at Biltmore!

Cottage Bistro

"Live Music on Main Street"

Known for the nightly live music and flowing libations, the Cottage Bistro on Main Street is a hip and happening joint. Flocked with dark wooden tables with tea lights, and rich red walls with sepia toned photographs of music legends, bands and artists rock out all night long. Tasty upscale pub grub served here means you can spend the whole evening here, from cocktail hour, dinner to a night cap.

Venue Nightclub

"Great Tunes & Dancing"

The Venue Nightclub is one of the biggest hot spots in Vancouver. A nightclub and concert venue, this establishment plays host to a variety of entertainment throughout the month. Featuring two distinct levels with a capacity of 600 people, The Venue Nightclub is large enough to accommodate plenty of people, while still feeling like an intimate venue space. Guest DJs, live bands, lay down beats the crowds go crazy for, making it a great place to get your dance on in Vancouver.

Commodore Ballroom

"Excellent Concert Venue"

After closing its doors in the mid-1990s amid protests from patrons and famous musicians, the recently refurbished and re-opened ballroom is making a bouncy comeback. Its dance floor lies atop tires that make everyone move. The 990-capacity venue, located in downtown, has a history of amazing performances ranging from Dizzy Gillespie and Tina Turner to Nirvana and the Clash, along with modern artists like Stereolab and the Flaming Lips. Its location in the entertainment hub makes it a perfect place to see a show before going clubbing. Call ahead for current event details.
