International House

"Boutique Hotel"

Located just two blocks from the French Quarter is New Orleans' first boutique hotel. Built in 1906 and renovated in 1998, the International House boasts an exceptional contemporary style of the highest quality. This hotel has been named as one of the best boutique hotels in the world by various publications, making it a destination in and of itself. Featuring a gym, bar and business center, the International House caters to a diverse array of guest needs.

Loft 523

"Lofty Designs"

523 is not the number of rooms available in this Loft. The style is entirely minimalistic, almost spartan to the eye, and yet there exists a level of comfort unexplainable in words. In all probability it is the use of limestone or the sleek furniture against the soft shaded walls. The 16 lofts are designed Soho style and the two penthouses with terrace gardens are a hermit's retreat. All the modern amenities co-exist in harmony with this rustic architectural brilliance.

Dauphine Orleans Hotel

"Step Back in Time"

This New Orleans townhouse was built in 1775. Close to two hundred years later the townhouse opened its doors as one of the finest hotels in New Orleans. As you enter the Dauphine, you feel as though you have stepped back into the romantic New Orleans of the eighteenth century. The rooms in the Dauphine are stylish and comfortable with views that look out over the lush courtyard and pool. This hotel is ideal for those looking for a luxury experience in a traditional New Orleans setting.

Hotel St. Marie

"Centrally Located in New Orleans"

The graceful and comfortable Hotel St. Marie is located just off world-famous Bourbon Street and is within walking distance of the excitement of the French Quarter. The hotel lobby has a subtle elegance that reflects the quality of the hotel. The rooms are well appointed and have beautiful views that look out over the Quarter. The central courtyard gives visitors privacy and a shaded area to relax in the New Orleans heat.
