

"Best Theaters in New Orleans"

Créé par: Cityseeker

📍 8 Emplacements marqués

📷 by Noah Kern
(User:Affablebeef) ©

Saenger Theatre

"Legendary NOLA Theater"

Built in 1927 by Julian Saenger, Saenger Theatre has weathered through years in the Crescent City until Hurricane Katrina hit. Sustaining major damage, the theater went through a renovation in 2011. Reopening its doors in 2013, the theater has revitalized Canal Street and welcomed artists and Broadway shows like John Legend and Mama Mia. The interiors mimic a 15th-century Italian courtyard with columns, decorative moldings, and twinkling starlit ceiling.

📞 +1 504 525 1052

🌐 www.saengernola.com/

✉ saenger@theambassadors.com

📍 1111 Canal Street, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

📷 by Jeangagnon ©

Le Petit Theatre

"Community Theatre"

Built in 1789, Petit Theatre underwent major reconstruction work in 1960. Since 1916, it has been home to a community theater group that produces many plays each season, including several children's plays. It receives annual national attention as the home of the Tennessee Williams Festival. Admission by ticket during theater season, which runs from September-June.

📞 +1 504 522 2081

🌐 www.lepetittheatre.com

✉ info@lepetittheatre.com

📍 616 Saint Peter Street, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

📷 by Reading Tom ©

Contemporary Arts Center New Orleans

"Alternative Theater"

This modern art exhibit center, located in a renovated warehouse, is the heart of the New Orleans' art community. The Contemporary Arts Center offers a series of seasonally rotating exhibitions, classes, lectures, performances, screenings, and concerts every year. The exhibits waver between traditional and alternative art forms with works from both local and national artists. The center also serves gourmet coffees and specialty wines as well as a variety of pastries and sandwiches. A small bookstore completes the enriching experience.

📞 +1 504 528 3805

🌐 www.cacno.org

✉ info@cacno.org

📍 900 Camp Street, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

📷 by Jason+Riedy ©

Mahalia Jackson Theater for the Performing Arts

"Significant Art Stop"

There's something for all art lovers at Mahalia Jackson Theater for the Performing Arts. Whether you enjoy the high notes of an opera singer or the grace of a ballet dancer, this theater has something to offer you. The best of Broadway, as well as, several musicals are also presented here. So step into Mahalia Jackson Theater for the Performing Arts to enjoy the best of art.

+1 504 525 1052

www.mahaliajacksontheater.com/

mjt@theambassadors.com

1419 Basin Street, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

by Infrogmation of New Orleans

The Historic Carver Theate

"Entertainment Landmark"

The Historic Carver Theater is a landmark on the NoLa cultural scene. It is named after renowned scientist George Washington Carver and features on the National Register of Historic Places. With state-of-the-art facilities and varying capacities, this versatile 16,000 square-foot (1486 square-meter) venue is ideal for hosting private and public events. From live music concerts, stage productions, musicals and dance recitals, to corporate and social functions, guests are guaranteed hospitality and entertainment.

+1 702 787 8983

info@carvertheater.org

2101 Orleans Ave, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

by "Shuttergames on Unsplash" on Unsplash

Ashé Cultural Arts Center

"Art For the Community"

Ashé Cultural Arts Center works towards the dissemination of arts in the community through art presentation, production, encouraging artists and so on. This center is a creation of a non-profit organization that caters to doing social work. Events here include art exhibitions, music and dance shows and performances by the Southern Repertory Theatre. The center provides creative space and freedom for emerging artists and helps them in art productions and collaborations. Post Hurricane Katrina, the center has worked even more for the welfare of the community.

+1 504 569 9070

www.ashenola.org/

1712 Oretha C Haley Boulevard, La Nouvelle-Orléans LA

by kawanet

Jefferson Performing Arts Center

"Grand Venue"

Located in Metairie, the Jefferson Performing Arts Center is home to the Jefferson Performing Arts Society. The theater was built in order to host all kinds of performing arts, from plays to opera, ballet, symphonies and more. The center also often hosts great children's programming, like plays and musicals.

+1 504 731 4700

jeffersonpac.com/

info@jeffersonpac.com

6400 Airline Drive, Metairie LA

by Infrogmation of New Orleans

Rivertown Theaters for the Performing Arts

"Broadway In The Big Easy"

If you're looking for a high energy Broadway musical in the New Orleans area, then you will definitely want to check out Rivertown Theaters for the Performing Arts. Some big name shows that have graced the stage here include How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, The Producers and Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Rivertown also host many child and family-friendly shows, from The Wizard of Oz to Peter Pan and many more.

+1 504 461 9475

www.rivertowntheaters.com/

info@rivertowntheaters.com

325 Minor Street, Kenner LA

REJOIGNEZ-NOUS A:

cityseeker.com

