Four Seasons Hotel Tokyo at Marunouchi

"Boutique-Style Luxury"

Directly accessible from JR Tokyo Station, Four Seasons Hotel Tokyo at Marunouchi offers a quiet luxurious accommodation in the heart of the bustling city. This hotel was selected as one of Top 25 Hotels in Japan by TripAdvisor's Travelers' Choice Award 2014, and provides spacious rooms, complimentary use of hot-spring baths and sauna in a spa, and a 24-hour fitness studio. Free WiFi and pick-up service from the station is available. The Four Seasons is a 5-minute walk from the Imperial Palace, and a 10-minute walk from downtown area Ginza. It is a 20-minute train ride away from Shibuya, Harajuku or historical Asakusa. Popular Tsukiji Fish Market and Akihabara are both within a 10-minute drive from the hotel. Stylish designer rooms at Marunouchi Four Seasons are decorated with chic furnishings to create a relaxing ambience. They are fitted with modern facilities like a 3D blu-ray built-in flat-screen TV, an accompanying surround-sound system and Bluetooth. The en suite bathroom includes a shower booth and a large bath tub. Guests can enjoy rejuvenating massages at the spa, and children can play free video games in the room. The hotel offers 24-hour concierge service and free-use bicycles. Pets can be accommodated with advance reservation. Opened in April 2015, the Motif Restaurant & Bar offers refined French cuisine with a "farm to table" concept, from early morning till midnight. Room service is available 24 hours a day.

Tokyo Dome City

"Un forfait de divertissement complet"

Le Tokyo Dome city est comme un rêve devenu réalité pour n'importe quel touriste parce qu'il y a tellement de choses à faire ici qu'une seule journée n'est pas suffisante pour parcourir le site au complet. Le parc d'attractions est fier de ses manèges tels que le Dauphin de Tonnerre et la Goutte de Merveille. Si vous voulez vous détendre et vous faire choyer, le spa est ici juste pour vous. Si le shopping vous intéresse, ne manquez pas le grand centre commercial avec de nombreux magasins. Vous aurez certainement faim après tant d'activités, alors terminez votre journée en choisissant n'importe quel restaurant qui sert votre cuisine préférée.

Gas Science Center

"Ideal Field Trip For Students"

Although Japan's first gas lamps were lit in Yokohama in 1872, Tokyo Gas established this Gas Science Center in 1986 to mark its 100th anniversary. The visitor can learn about future plans for gas use and see the technology used today to produce and convey gas. Displays such as "Microcosm of Methane," "Liquefaction and Transportation of Natural Gas," "Fossil Fuels and the Global Environment," "City Gas Production," all merit field-trip visits by elementary and junior high school children.

Zoo d'Ueno

"L'un des plus anciens zoos du Japon"

Le zoo d'Ueno, qui a plus de 100 ans, abrite une multitude d'oiseaux exotiques, des bébés tigres de Sibérie, des singes, des gorilles, des pandas géants, des girafes et bien d'autres animaux du monde entier. Un monorail relie les deux zones séparées à l'intérieur du zoo, et il y a également un zoo pour enfants à l'extrémité sud. Une structure ressemblant à une pagode, à un bout du parc, ajoute une touche d'histoire du Japon à l'expérience, car cette structure fut construite au XVIIe siècle. Alliant faune et histoire, le zoo d'Ueno offre donc une expérience particulièrement gratifiante pour les enfants.

Koganei Koen (Koganei Park)

"Cherry Bloom Boon"

Koganei Koen is most popular with locals during cherry blossom season in March and April - there are over 1000 cherry trees in the park that bloom dramatically and beautifully. The first cherry trees were planted in the park in 1737, making the visit to Koganei something of a historic journey as well. It is also a great park to bring your kids to - you can hire bikes by the hour and cycle around its many paths. There is also an artificial turf hill, on which adventurous kids can sledge down.
