

"Best Street Food in Toronto"

Realizzata per : Cityseeker

📍 3 Posizioni indicati

📷 by vtoanstar ©

Banh Mi Boys

"A No-Frills Asian Diner"

Located on the Queen Street West in Chinatown, Banh Mi Boys' popularity relies solely on the select Korean and Vietnamese delicacies that are served at a considerably lower price. This small, crammed shop is a great place to start off on the East-Asian culinary route as it offers tastefully prepared lemongrass tofu, traditional five spice pork belly sandwich and steamed bao. The flavors are authentic and the preparations never fail to impress even the most discerning foodie.

📞 +1 416 363 0588

✉ info@banhmiboys.com

📍 392 Queen Street West, Toronto ON

📷 by LearningLark from United States ©

Buster's Sea Cove

"Heaven for Seafood Lovers"

There is nothing more enticing to the palate than the aromas of deep fried seafood. At any given point in time you are bound to see hungry patrons mobbing the place to get some of their perfectly fried seafood. From delicious muscles, crispy fish and chips, juicy lobster rolls to perfectly seasoned calamari and chowder, anything you order at Buster's Sea Cove will only leave you wanting for more. Here, the fish is always fresh and food is made to order, also their service is very prompt hence patrons do not mind the ques. For the kind of portions that they serve, their prices are a steal!

📞 +1 647 391 8140

💻 busters-stlawrence.business.site/

✉ tombustersseacove@gmail.com

📍 92 Front Street East, Upper Level, Vendor 33, Toronto ON

📷 by LoboStudioHamburg ©

Hogtown Smoke

"Juicy Beef Briskets and More"

Hogtown Smoke is known for its glorious, slow-cooked meat, and an array of beef briskets, pork shoulders, and crispy chicken forms a part of the menu here. The restaurant has limited seating, and the interiors are quite cozy and comfortably furnished with reclaimed church benches. The menu is written on the chalkboard and the bar serves as a takeout counter. The prices are not too steep and are worth the huge portions of meat that are served here. Their juicy chicken and poultry specials, signature brisket and delicious ribs taste heavenly when complemented with beer-baked beans, slaw, and crispy fries. You can also take your pick of drinks to accompany your meal.

📞 +1 416 693 8282

💻 www.hogtownsmoke.ca/

✉ thebeach@hogtownsmoke.ca

📍 1959 Queen Street East, Toronto ON

UNIRSI A NOI A :
cityseeker.com