Engebret Café

"Più di 140 anni di tradizione"

Questo edificio basso che si trova su un angolo risale al XVIII secolo mentre il ristorante è ormai in funzione da 140 anni. Si trova proprio di fronte al Museum of Contemporary Art, e a pochi passi dalla medioevale Fortezza di Akershus. Offre cibo tradizionale norvegese, con molta enfasi sul pesce, ma in autunno c'è anche selvaggina. Si può fare un salto qui per mangiare il lutefisk nel periodo di Natale e è una tradizione a Oslo. In estate gli ospiti possono anche sedersi nello spazio allestito in giardino.

Stratos

"Rooftop Rapture"

What's could be better than listening to some of the best DJs in Norway while surrounded by plenty of food, alcohol, and beautiful people? Perhaps doing all of that 12 stories above the ground, atop the historic Folkteateret building, with a beautiful panoramic view of the bustling city of Oslo would be an improvement. This is the premise of Stratos. For most of the year it is rented out for weddings or corporate events, but during certain holidays and the summer months it opens up to the public as a nightclub featuring live music, DJs, and an unforgettable view. Call or email for table reservations.
