Embassy Suites Caracas

"Caracas Business District"

This hotel is situated in arguably the most important and dynamic commercial and financial axis of the city. It is just in front of the Centro Comercial Lido; a few steps away are the busy commercial areas of El Rosal, Chacaito and Chacao and the prime urbanizations of Campro Alegre and Caracas Country Club. The hotel has suites with a separate lounge, separated by an extra sofa, comfortable sofas for relaxing and large areas for business meetings, banquets, games or conversation, a bathroom, two remote controlled televisions and cable TV, two telephones with fax modem, iron and ironing board, kettle, fridge and hairdryer.

Tamanaco InterContinental

"Luxury Five Star Hotel"

Built in 1953, the Tamanaco InterContinental is a five-star luxury establishment. The oldest of the city's top hotels, it is located on a hill in Las Mercedes, a residential area in the south-central part of Caracas. It is both modern and elegant, with a new and an old wing. Many of the rooms offer a view of Mt. Avila. The facilities are excellent, the swimming pool is enormous and the hotel bar, El Punto, is one of the most popular in town. The nearby business and shopping district is within easy reach of the Tamanaco. Advance booking is recommended.
