Pier 5 Hotel

"Luxury Harborside Accommodations"

Pier 5 Hotel features an Art Deco elegance totally in keeping with its prime location by the harbor. Of all the Inner Harbor hotels, this is the only one that sits right at water's edge, and the views from many of the rooms are breathtaking. It is minutes away from the many attractions of Harborplace and the downtown business district, plus it is only a short water-taxi ride from the nightlife of Fells Point. Moreover, guests are given complimentary privileges at the Harbor View Marina health spa.

Inn at Henderson's Wharf

"Historic Waterfront Inn"

This waterfront hotel in the charming Fells Point neighborhood of Baltimore is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Formerly the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tobacco warehouse, this beautifully restored building houses 38 rooms, each with a private bath and view of the harbor or an English country garden. The hotel is named for John Henderson, a pre-Civil War merchant. Every guest who stays in the six-story building receives a complimentary breakfast, including seasonal fruit, fresh pastries and an assortment of juices and yogurts.
