Siam House

"Lunch Buffet and Thai Favorites"

This handsome restaurant outfitted in teak is, despite its pretty décor, a simple and unpretentious spot that caters to the casual. On the menu, you'll find tom ka gai, a lemony coconut soup, pad thai and an intriguing variety of curry concoctions with some vegetarian selections available as well. You can order as much spice as you like, from light to fire breathing and accompany it with beer and wine. Occasionally, you'll also find some of the restaurant's handsome statuary and other Thai artwork for sale at Siam House.
