📍 4 Posizioni indicati

Beaver Street Brewery and Whistle Stop Cafe

"Beaver Brews"

Wash down your burger, sandwich or wood-fired pizza with a handcrafted beer from this award-winning Flagstaff brewery. You can even watch the chefs prepare your meal and the brewmeisters brewing the ales, porters, and lagers. During the summer, dine on the patio with items served from The Whistle Stop Cafe. This Arizona Republic consistently gives it reviews as both the "Best Restaurant" and "Best Bar" in Flagstaff. As an added benefit, the pool tables provide one more reason to visit Beaver Street Brewery.

Charly's Pub & Grill

"Popular Pub in Historic Hotel"

The Weatherford Hotel's dining room and bar is a must-see dining destination for those with an interest in historic properties. Even if you're not into old buildings, the Arizona-inspired food, great beer selection and live entertainment make it worth a visit. Breads, soups and pies are made daily and sunset dinners are served in the Zane Grey Ballroom. Additionally, there is sidewalk dining in mild weather and this includes full bar service with 20 imported beers on tap.

Flagstaff Brewing Company

"Funny Brews"

Flagstaff Brewing Company can hold its own in a town filled with beer masters. This brewery is a place where folks feel at right-at-home with a tasty pint in hand. The names of their brews have tons of flavor just like the suds. Some of these varieties include Bubbaganouj Ale, Blackbird Porter, Sasquatch Stout, and during December the Grinch Holiday Ale. Flagstaff Brewing Company also produces cask-conditioned ales which are produced in traditional English-style.

Brix

"Curated Cuisine from Northern Arizona"

Located in a historic carriage house in downtown Flagstaff, the Brix offers organic, American fare with many if not all of their ingredients raised within Northern Arizona and the Four Corners region. Inside guests will find spacious surroundings to dine and on the ever-changing menu, they'll see rotations that include classics the like duck breast, lamb sirloin and a charcuterie board. It's open for dinner only, and if you can't make it here, the sister restaurants Criollo and Proper Meats + Provisions are two other superb options for local, sustainable food.
