Oxbow Public Market

"Enjoy Local Produce"

This 40,000 square-foot (3716 square-meter) market is located in downtown Napa. The new venue along the Napa River features around 30 vendors selling the freshest of local products. Fish, poultry and other goods along with cheese, wine, candy, bread and grocery items are available. Besides these, gift articles, ceramics and kitchen items are also on offer. There are four eateries on the premises, so you can relax over a delicious snack or meal, after your shopping bout.

V Marketplace 1890

"Charming Boutiques Within A Vintage Estate"

Vintage 1870 is one of the most special places to shop in the Napa Valley, and offers an array of boutiques huddled within a 23-acre (9.3-hectare) vintage estate, in the quaint village of Yountville. You will find many upscale specialty shops that offer things ranging from handmade chocolates and children's toys to fine jewelry, art and sculpture, along with antique surprises around every corner. The complex also features four restaurants, a full service spa and its own inn. Plan to spend the better part of an afternoon.

Oakville Grocery

"Picnic Realized"

Oakville Grocery, a small town country store, has received national attention and fame by Gourmet Magazine, Bon Appetit and even Good Morning America. Its real magic though, is its extensive selection of local and international wines and sparkling wines, cheeses and charcuterie meats. In the morning hours, the espresso bar opens at 7a where you can enjoy freshly baked goods, local fresh breads and over-sized cookies. It also serves up affordable, gourmet roadside fare such as sandwiches and salads. Located on a busy highway, this spot is generally busy, frequented by both locals and tourists. The Oakville Grocery is also a great spot to pick up all your picnic essentials.
