

"Best Local History & Culture in Colorado Springs"

Realizzata per : Cityseeker

📍 7 Posizioni indicati

📷 by JAKeeran ©

Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum

"Historical Treasure Trove"

A famous tourist spot in Downtown Colorado Springs, the Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum has collection of over 40,000 objects portraying the history and culture of the region. The museum's upper floor houses a courtroom which is a venue for music concerts and plays. It is a beautiful hall with wooden furniture. Apart from these events there are also local community events conducted in this courtroom.

☎ +1 719 385 5990

🌐 www.cspm.org/

✉ COSMuseum@SpringsGov.com

📍 215 South Tejon Street, Colorado Springs CO

📷 by Public Domain ©

Ghost Town Museum

"Wild West Museum"

This nifty museum allows you to go back in time 100 years while moseying through genuine Old West buildings. You can slip into an old saloon, visit a sheriff's office and the town jail, or even pan for gold. Cowboy fun can be had at the shooting gallery. Enter the nostalgic arcade to see how folks were once entertained before Nintendo and computer games. Set in Old Colorado City Historic District, in the historic Colorado Midland railroad structure, this museum is just minutes from downtown and is under cover, allowing for year round pleasure.

☎ +1 719 634 0696

🌐 www.ghosttownmuseum.com

✉ history@ghosttownmuseum.com

📍 400 South 21st St, Colorado Springs CO

📷 by wuestenigel ©

The Penrose Heritage Museum

"Evolution of Wheels"

The Penrose Heritage Museum was established in the year 1941 by Julie Penrose. The museum is known for its antique firearms, carriages, Indian artifacts, native artifacts, 1928 Cadillac limousine, three Pikes Peak Auto race cars, a 1906 Renault, other vintage vehicles and a couple of presidential carriages. A must visit place for every one in the vicinity, especially car enthusiasts.

☎ +1 719 633 7733

🌐 www.elpomar.org/About-Us/museum-and-legacy-properties/penrose-heritage-museum-1/

📍 11 Lake Circle, Colorado Springs CO

📷 by Chris Lott ©

Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame

"Pay Homage to the Cowboy"

This museum documents rodeo's 19th-century genesis, when it was a cowboy's way of life, to the business and sport it is today. Multimedia presentations and display cases featuring trophies, gear and photos dominate the museum. The Hall of Champions showcases rodeo greats, announcers and clowns. The outside rodeo arena features live rodeo animals. An on-site gift shop shelves all sorts of books, collectibles and music.

+1 719 528 4764

www.prorodeohalloffame.com/

halloffame@prorodeo.com

101 Pro Rodeo Drive,
Colorado Springs CO

by Obiwan23 at English
Wikipedia

Manitou Cliff Dwellings

"Anasazi Indian Ruins"

Dating back to 1100 CE, these well-preserved Anasazi cliff dwellings are a must-visit for anyone interested in history and ancient cultures. The dwellings feature over 40 rooms, including a revered ceremonial kiva. All the tours are self-guided and require some ladder and stair climbing to enter the structures. Two on-site museums, which feature Anasazi artifacts, offer sharp insight into how, where, when, and why of this cliff-dwelling culture. Visit from June to August and witness traditional Indian dancers.

+1 719 685 5242

www.cliffdwellingsmuseum.com

info@cliffdwellingsmuseum.com

10 Cliff Road, Manitou
Springs CO

by scattered1

National Museum of World War II Aviation

"Learn About American Aviation"

The National Museum of World War II Aviation exhibits artifacts relating to the technology, pilots, and other personnel that made American aviation what it was during this tumultuous era. You'll be able to see photographs, memorabilia from individual soldiers, planes, and other equipment. A deeper understanding of history can be gained, and you can see some incredible restored aircraft.

+1 719 637 7559

www.worldwariiaivation.org

jstewart231@comcast.net

755 Aviation Way, Colorado
Springs CO

by scubadive67

Miramont Castle

"Architectural Marvel"

This 1895 castle looks like the work of a restless architect with decision problems. It boasts nine distinct architectural styles, including English Tudor and Byzantine. Built as a home for a wealthy priest, it features 46 rooms, including an eight-sided chapel and the famed Drawing Room featuring a gold ceiling and a massive 200-ton sandstone fireplace. Another remarkable feature is its walls, which are two feet thick. The Tearoom offers a modest menu. Visit in December and be awed by the outdoor Christmas lights. Guided group tours need to be reserved in advance.

+1 80829 1618

www.miramontcastle.org

miramontcastle@yahoo.com

9 Capitol Hill Avenue,
Manitou Springs CO

UNIRSI A NOI A : cityseeker.com