

"Best Budget Activities in New Haven"

Realizzata per : Cityseeker

📍 8 Posizioni indicati

📷 by Farragutful ©

New Haven Green

"New Haven's National Historic District"

The New Haven Town Green is one of New England's oldest, completed in 1638. Portions of the Green were used as a cemetery until the 1820s when the headstones were moved to the new Grove Street Cemetery. The 16-acre public park is a popular site for concerts and picnics, and an overall excellent gathering place for locals and tourists alike. The Green is also the location of an Amistad memorial. Along the Green there are three churches built in the 1810s: Center Church, United Church and Trinity Church.

☎ +1 203 777 8550 (Tourist Information)

🌐 www.newhavengreen.org/

📍 Temple Street, New Haven CT

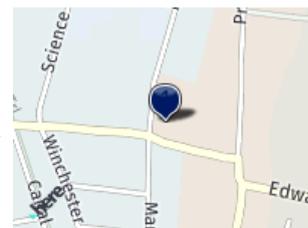

📷 by Daderot. ©

Marsh Botanical Garden

"Yale Garden"

Marsh Botanical Garden is situated within the precincts of Yale University. Its name pays tribute to Othniel Charles Marsh, who bestowed this property upon the university. Beatrix Farrand planned the landscape of the garden that houses a wide variety of plant species. Faculty, students, nature lovers, researchers and many other visitors head to this botanical gardens that has four greenhouses, perennial beds, seasonal plants and much more.

☎ + 203 432 6320

🌐 marshbotanicalgarden.yale.edu/

📍 227 Mansfield Street, Yale University, New Haven CT

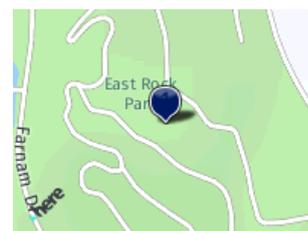

📷 by Rebecca Turcio ©

East Rock Park

"Wilderness in the City"

An easy drive from downtown New Haven, this park is a beautiful respite from the hustle and bustle of life. As you meander along the curved, tree-lined roads up to the summit, you will be greeted by a spectacular view of the city, Long Island Sound and the New Haven Harbor. There is a prized bird sanctuary, picnic and playground facilities, and if you are in the mood for a brisk walk, there are 10 miles of hiking trails. Enjoy the great outdoors right in the city.

☎ +1 203 946 6086

🌐 www.cityofnewhaven.com/Parks/ParksInformation/astrockpark.asp ✉ dbarvir@newhavenct.net

📍 41 Cold Spring Street, New Haven CT

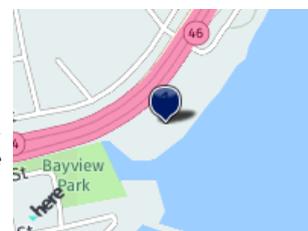

📷 by Versageek ©

Long Wharf Nature Preserve

"Explore the Coast"

Take a break from your hectic city life and spend some time amidst nature as you visit the Long Wharf Nature Preserve. This nature preserve is home to variety of flora and fauna that are native to Connecticut. Witness the native cactus, Opuntia Humifusa or just enjoy the sight of colorful flowers, for this is a great spot for a day outing with your loved ones. The marsh land also sees the beautiful egrets regularly and makes a scenic spot for photography as well.

+1 203 562 6655

Off I-95, New Haven CT

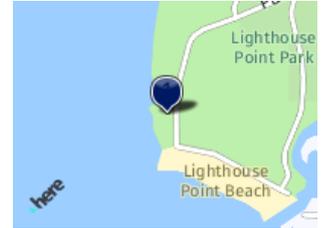

by versageek

Lighthouse Point Park

"Striking Environs"

Long Island Sound is a unique estuary where salt water from the sea mixes with the fresh river water, creating a biodiversity of different species of flora and fauna. The Lighthouse Point Park attracts public to this ecosystem, where fishing and boating are among prime activities. Birdwatching, picnics, swimming, carousel and a kiddie playground, are other reasons to visit here. The lighthouse has quite a history and the renovated tower is definitely worth spending some time on. Moreover, Fantasy of Lights, Hawkfest and Paddle Day are events the whole family can enjoy.

+1 203 946 8790

www.cityofnewhaven.com/parks/parksinformation/lighthousepoint.asp

2 Lighthouse Road, New Haven CT

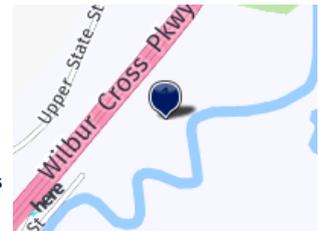

by Marcus Balcher

+1 203 287 5658

Quinnipiac River State Park

"Along the Quinnipiac River"

Located just along the point where the Quinnipiac River curves to empty into the Long Island Sound, the Quinnipiac River State Park is a pleasant place to head to for a leisurely stroll. Located in the North Haven area, this park comes equipped with benches and excellent lighting, as well as a magnificent view of the river and facilities for fishing, boating and hunting.

+1 203 287 5658

www.ct.gov/deep/cwp/view.asp?a=2716&q=438090&deepNav_GID=1650

Banton Street, North Haven CT

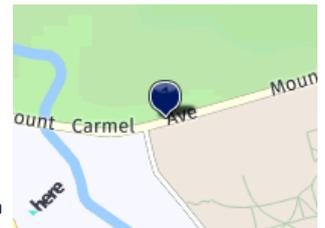

by monkeyatlarge

+1 203 287 5658

Sleeping Giant State Park

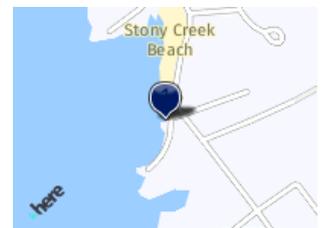

"Outdoor Haven"

Also known as Mount Carmel Park, the Sleeping Giant State Park lives up to its billing as an untouched wilderness with 1,465 acres (593 hectares) of sweeping semi-arid expanses. The gateway to Connecticut's countryside, the park is named after the Sleeping Giant traprock mountain that dominates its surroundings from an impressive elevation of 522 feet (159 meters). The grounds are riddled with a superabundance of hiking trails and picnic areas that add up to 32 miles (51.44 kilometers) of outdoor recreation. The park's southern shores are home to some of its most complex ecosystems, thanks to the life-sustaining waters of the River Connecticut's tributaries, which is also a popular fishing zone swarming with trout.

www.ct.gov/deep/cwp/view.asp?a=2716&q=325264&deepNav_GID=1650

200 Mount Carmel Avenue, Hamden CT

Thimble Island Cruise

"Sea Mist Cruises"

Enjoy 45-minute guided cruises around the islands from the Stony Creek Dock, just minutes from New Haven. The Sea Mist crew also offers chartered cruises for private groups and parties, offering wine and cheese or fully catered dinners. One word of warning, parking is a big problem during the warmer months and on weekends. Park where you can, relax and enjoy the sea spray on your face and photographic opportunities as you listen to the local lore about the Thimble Islands.

 +1 203 488 8905

 www.thimbleislandcruise.com/

 chartersea488@sbcglobal.net

 Indian Point Road, Branford CT

UNIRSI A NOI A :
cityseeker.com