Hôtel des Coutellier

"Beautiful Luxury Hotel"

Hôtel des Coutellier was a commercial building before it came under the ownership of the Coutellier family. The Coutellier family transformed the building into a 24 room hotel, of which 21 are guest rooms and three are suites. The building always possessed a beautiful rustic charm with the brick arrangement now adorning the walls of most of the rooms in the hotel. The rooms are well equipped with most of the modern amenities. The hotel also provides romantic packages, activities packages and several other packages for its guests. For the continuous dedication of the Coutellier family towards guest satisfaction, in 2010, the hotel was given a 4 star rating by the Corporation of the Quebec tourism industry.

Auberge Saint-Antoine

"Where Luxury and Comfort Blend"

Auberge Saint-Antoine is a beautiful boutique hotel in the heart of the Vieux-Port. The award-winning accommodations are upscale and chic, and the rooms are all equipped with the necessary amenities and features. Perfect for a romantic getaway in Old Quebec or a family vacation, the hotel offers stellar services which ensure a pleasant and memorable stay. The building, which dates from 1822, was originally a warehouse, and the premises were completely renovated and later established as the Auberge Saint-Antoine. Guests will find many remnants of the building's history, from ceiling beams to period furniture. The gastronomic packages, allowing guests to sample several area restaurants, are quite popular.
