Caspian Restaurant

"OC Oasis"

Caspian Restaurant in Irvine appears to be an oasis as you approach the palm tree lined, twinkle light illuminated entrance of this restaurant. The menu features authentic Persian dishes, from the familiar like hummus and kabob to the less familiar like fesenjan and addas polo. Caspian is not only about the food, however, but the whole experience. Enjoy traditional Persian entertainment in the form of belly-dancers who come twirl around the dining room during evenings. When you are done with your meal, step into the hookah lounge and experience another part of Persian culture.

Gulliver's Restaurant

"Gulliver's Travels"

When you hear the name it won't be a surprise if you are reminded of the classic tale of Gulliver's Travels. Being around for four decades is not an easy thing, and to remain a favorite Prime Rib restaurant in Southern California is no mean feat. Gulliver's is known for their hand picked, corn fed beef, which is slow roasted in a customized, patented oven for that distinct flavor and succulence. Gulliver's is equally well known for their house specialties of prime steaks, Chateaubriand, salmon, rack of lamb, baby back ribs and roasted Long Island duck. When you enter the restaurant, you will be transported back to 18th-century England, by being engulfed by a bona fide museum of leaded glass pieces and ceramic objects, and collectible prints of Hogarth, Rowlandson and other Gulliver's Travels illustrators. It has a charm of an English inn, cozy and inviting with a vibrant pub to celebrate any occasion with a delicious Prime Rib feast. Gulliver's is a great place to unwind and relish the good times.

Tangaroa Terrace

"Polynesian Getaway"

Tangaroa Terrace is a casual family restaurant located near the world-famous Disneyland Hotel. The restaurant is similar to the nearby Enchanted Tiki Room by the fact that they both follow an island theme, complete with torch lights and tikis. The menu is full of tropical dishes inspired by the South Pacific kitchen, but you will still find classic American food like burgers and fries. Tangaroa Terrace also serves breakfast with classic items like French toast, pancakes and eggs. Additionally as with most restaurants around Downtown Disney, the kids will ultimately be enthralled with the atmosphere.

Nubia Cafe

"Middle-Eastern Flavors"

The Nubia Cafe is a colorful and authentic Arabic restaurant and hookah bar located in Anaheim. Locals and critics agree this is definitely some of the best Middle-Eastern cuisine in Orange County. The menu includes all the staple Middle-Eastern dishes like hummus, kababs and shwarma, along with many dishes you may have never heard of. Sandwiches, both American and Middle-Eastern adorn the menu as well as salads and pita bread pizzas topped with typical Middle-Eastern meats. When you're done eating, order a hookah with one of their selection of over 30 different flavors of tobacco. Nubia Cafe is a perfect destination in Orange County to experience the flavors and culture of the Middle-East.

Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament

"Sword Fights and Finger Food"

Just down the road from Knott's Berry Farm is this dinner and show extravaganza. In this combination time capsule and restaurant, costumed knights compete in jousting and sword fighting, while you dine without utensils on chicken and dragon soup. It is a great place for kids, for whom it doesn't get much better than watching sword fights while ignoring table manners. Admission price includes both the dinner and show. Reservations are required.
