Mandara Spa at Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa

"Balinese Spa Treatment"

While enjoying an action-packed stay at the Disney's Grand Californian Hotel & Spa, don't miss the opportunity to chase away the stiffness and tensions from the mind and body. The Mandara Spa promises a holistic treatment in the traditional Balinese way. Eight treatment rooms and couples' pavilion, sauna, steam room, and fitness center together make for a complete tranquil and serene experience. Soft Balinese music and the customary tea ceremony, a Zen Buddhist tradition, is just the beginning. The interiors feature traditional Balinese decor and each treatment is meant to make you feel like royalty.

Imperial Spa

"Korean Style Spa"

Located within the Sunrise Valley Shopping Center in Fullerton, the Imperial Spa offers Korean-style sauna rooms, massages, specialty treatments and jacuzzis. Enter this unique spa and be pampered from head to toe. Visitors can choose to purchase a day pass in order to use the various therapeutic sauna rooms or opt for a treatment which allows for full use of the facilities. Every visit begins by disrobing in clean and orderly changing rooms where visitors can stash their stuff in the lockers provided. Next they move onto the separate men and women's jacuzzi rooms where they can relax and wait in the warm waters for their scheduled treatment. Full body scrubs, facials, and massages are just some rejuvenating therapies and treatments on offer. Be warned, this spa is not for the body conscious, as patrons are asked to go nude as per Korean tradition.
