Zamba

"Bright & Youthful"

Zamba is youthful store with a lot of trendy women's clothing and accessories. The outfits are often brightly colored with brands from around the world, ensuring a unique and fashion-forward style. Their jewelry has a unique look you often can't find in department stores and their other accessories, from shoes to purses, have a quirky yet chic style. The prices can be fairly steep, but you can find a great deal if you look long enough.

Toadstool Farm Vintage

This vintage shop is run out of a private backyard, and is open by appointment seven days a week. It's a very well-organized operation, and visitors have the option of shopping by collection and era, from the "pre-1920s" to the "1970s and beyond" and everything in between. Browse through a colorful collection of home decor, linens, vintage books, and clothing. Toadstool's sister shop, The Ghost Farm, specializes in vintage books and linen. Every few months the farm sets up a Vintage Tea Party on its lawn, and serves visitors food while they browse the beautifully curated items.
