O'Sullivan's Rebel Bar

"Fun-Filled Evenings"

Enjoy a fun time watching live sports and guzzling gallons of beer at the O' Sullivan's Rebel Bar. This exhilarating venue is a typical Irish pub with a cheerful and easy-going ambience, youthful crowds and plenty of fun activities to make it a memorable time for guests. The food is filling and features some great burgers, salads and fries. Tired office-goers can relax and unwind here and a catch live gig or two. The weekends are the best time to be here though weekdays are less crowded. The venue also provides space and facilities for fun parties and get-togethers.

Prescription Cocktail Club

"Stylish Parisian Cocktail Club"

Prescription Cocktail Club has all the makings of a plush, swanky, and trendy speakeasy, but without the pretentiousness one may encounter at similar bars or clubs. The staff at Prescription are friendly and the bartenders sure know how to whip up a delectable cocktail. The décor alone is reason enough to come by and spend the evening. Prescriptions has two floors which are filled with elegant and plush colors, sofas and wing-backs, and unique light fixtures. Stop by and mingle with the fashionable and fun crowd; it's just what the doctor ordered. À

Sherry Butt

"NYC Bar"

The creative drinks at Sherry Butt are handcrafted with quality alcohol and handmade syrups. The bar's design, which includes bare stone walls, velvet seats, and dark lighting, demonstrates excellent attention to detail. Coming here, you could mistakenly believe you are entering a small, upmarket Brooklyn pub. The assortment of whiskeys and international beers makes for a fantastic substitute for cocktails.

La Compagnie des Vins Surnaturels

"Sophisticated Wine Bar"

La Compagnie des Vins Surnaturels is the brainchild of the group responsible for several of Paris' unrivaled watering holes in 6th Arrondissement. Located in the hip locality off Marché Saint Germain, the wine bar makes a great addition to the city's thriving wine scene. The thoughtfully-selected vino collection spans across 300 varieties, which pair beautifully with charcuterie platters. The decor is sophisticated, with blue walls, intimate lights, a cozy fire place, chic accents and interesting upholstery. A contemporary version of a quintessential Parisian establishment, the space exudes a nightclub-esque appeal.

Little Red Door

"Inventive Bartending"

Earn yourself a key to the Little Red Door like fellow patrons from the Haut Marais district. Bartending is a sublime art at this stylish bar that prides itself on premium cocktails. The evolving list includes inventive concoctions of Jamaican jerk bitters and whiskey and champagne with celery. Enjoy sipping on fine cocktails crafted beautifully and being served by warm and friendly staff. Exposed brick facades and the soft glow of candle lights all the way to the mezzanine level contribute to an intimate setting.

Harry's New York Bar

"Big Apple in Paris"

In its heyday, Harry's was paid regular visits by none other than Hemingway himself. Cut to present times, and the bar is as smoky as ever, sans Hemingway or his ghost. Take in the historical ambiance of this historic tavern that goes back more than a century while relaxing with one of the original Bloody Mary concoctions, which still tastes exactly the same as when Harry's debuted. There have also been claims that other well-known drinks like the Side Car and French 75 originated here.

Buddha Bar

"Uscire con la gente giusta"

Di successo fra gli uomini d'affari e i modaioli, questo ristorante kitsch e esotico, non è esattamente quello che ci si aspetterebbe di trovare a soli pochi minuti dalCrillon, un hotel di lusso e dalla super chic Place de la Concorde. Ci si deve arrampicare sulle massicce scale che portano a questo enorme ristorante con piccoli settori per la cena, protetti da un enorme Buddha. Il fantasioso menu Giappo-californiano propone anatra alla griglia e altri piatti di carne.

Le Carmen

"Makes Any Event Special"

Situated in a historic structure, Le Carmen is the place where you would want to organize your next event. The neo-Baroque architecture of the 19th-century mansion is just awe-inspiring. Originally the home of the famous Parisian composer Georges Bizet, the cafe takes its name from this composer's most famous opera 'Carmen.' This venue has five rooms on two levels and they can be used for a range of private, cultural, and corporate events. In the past several years, the cafe has become a hub for Parisian hipsters and fashionistas alike; it's been known to host weekly indie, electronic and hip-hop concerts, DJs and fashion parties, as well as a weekly book swap and dance party.

Le Bar du Plaza Athénée

"Ultra Chic Cocktails"

Among the hierarchy of Parisian bars, this blue blooded lounge is where the rich and fashionable come after hours. Located in the Hôtel Plaza Athénée Paris, there is nothing ordinary about Bar du Plaza Athénée; nibbles include caviar and sushi and even your martinis, highballs and tropicals are more than just mixes. The bar itself is made of sculpted and sandblasted glass, illuminating drinks with a effervescent glow. The other lounge area deep-set with rich leather furnishing and artworks is a cozier venue, perfect for a night-out in Paris.

Le Bar

"A Great View of Avenue George V"

This establishment, known as Le Bar, is popular among both Parisians and guests of the world-renowned Four Seasons Hotel George V. There is a lovely view of the avenue George V, one of Paris' chicest streets. The bar serves coffees and teas, cocktails (both alcoholic and non-alcoholic), milkshakes, and a light menu featuring snacks, salads and sandwiches as well as a more heartier of duck, scallops and beef tartare. It is a perfect place to relax with a glass of your favorite beverage.
