Open Door Bookshop

"The Glory of Old Books"

There is a comforting smell of old books, that pacifies and relaxes the mind. The yellowed pages, faint lettering and creamy smoothness of the pages are a pleasure to the book-lover. The Open Door Bookshop provides a similar experience with its vast collection of second-hand books. Dealing in books since 1976, the bookstore has garnered quite a few loyalists who browse through its stock in search of prized labels. One can also sell our collection to the store at reasonable prices.
