

"Best Designer Wear in Amsterdam"

Realizzata per : Cityseeker

 3 Posizioni indicati

 by C messier

De Bijenkorf

"Il più grande magazzino di Amsterdam"

De Bijenkorf (l'Alveare) è il più grande magazzino di Amsterdam e si può comparare con Harrods a Londra e KDW a Berlino. Si trova nel centro della città e offre una vasta varietà di merce, inclusi vestiti firmati da stilisti internazionali, cosmetici, mobili, giochi, gioielli, scarpe, cd, libri, prelibatezze, regali, oggetti da cucina etc. Anche se non si può definire economico, chiunque venga per fare compere troverà qualcosa da comprare in questo grande magazzino dal magnifico aspetto. De Bijenkorf fornisce anche servizi come la tax free, un guardaroba, una macchina ATM, un parcheggio custodito e diversi ristoranti.

Apple Maps

 +31 88 245 4488

www.debijenkorf.nl/amsterdam

 Dam 1, Amsterdam

 +31 20 622 9375

The Frozen Fountain

"Memorable Gifts & More"

Offered at The Frozen Fountain are rare findings to spruce up your home. The unique decor, fabric and furniture to choose from are quirky, kitsch and one-of-a-kind collectibles that make for great presents and hostess gifts. This one is truly a home collector's hidden treasure.

Apple Maps

enquiry@frozenfountain.nl

 Prinsengracht 645, Amsterdam

 by Massimo Catarinella

Pieter Cornelisz Hooftstraat

"High Class Shopping Street"

Named for a 17th-century historian and playwright, Amsterdam's Pieter Cornelisz Hooftstraat has since become the center of the city's designer shopping industry. Historically, the street has always had links to the upper class residents of Amsterdam-Zuid and the first buildings were designed by Pierre Cuypers, who is known for designing the Rijksmuseum and Amsterdam Central Station. Today, P.C. Hooftstraat is a very short stroll away from the Museumplein and Leidseplein, and draws the wealthy and fashionable to its selection of stores such as Burberry, Cartier, Chanel, Dolce & Gabbana, Hugo Boss and Tiffany & Co.

Apple Maps

 Pieter Cornelisz Hooftstraat, Amsterdam

UNIRSI A NOI A :

cityseeker.com