Carrer dels Tallers

"Charming Little Street"

Lost amidst a maze of streets in the heart of Barcelona, Carrer dels Tallers is the kind of street you discover either by accident or if you specifically go looking. Hidden away from the city's major tourist trodden stretches, it's difficult to believe how peaceful the street remains even as the other areas swarm with people. An intriguing array of independent shops and boutiques is your reward for discovery. From charming clothing boutiques to local record stores and local cafes and restaurants, the street offers a distinctly local vibe. Of special note are the excellent selection vintage boutiques, perfect for snagging a bargain.

Lullaby

"Past Perfect"

Vintage hunters in the city have known to flock Carrer Riera Baixa for its promising boutiques, and Lullaby is one of its finest. Established in 2009, the store offers an exciting collection of trends that go as far back as the 1950s. From designer dresses and bags to one-of-a-kind pieces, the boutique's collection has enough to please all tastes. Also worth mentioning, is their fantastic collection of shoes and accessories that will perfectly complement your look. The helpful store staff will be happy to advice and recommend.

Mercat del Encants

"Antique Bargains"

Any kind of object can be found at Mercat del Encants, the biggest flea market in Barcelona. Hidden among piles and piles of second-hand objects, there might be that antique you were looking for. Especially curious is the huge amount of old furniture on sale which is surrounded by stacks of clothes, books, and other curios. It is open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9a. However, stop by at 8a to attend the auctions of the most valuable objects.

Muebles RAM

"Second-hand Treasures"

A warehouse that provides secondhand furniture, Muebles RAM gives you some great options for redecorating your home. There is furniture stacked to the ceiling and it's a wonder that it doesn't fall from the shelves. Some of the products include theater costumes, lamps, desks, doors, stained-glass and much more. It is certain that you will spend your entire day here looking for stuff.
