Fuxia

"Great Pasta"

Primarily a concept born from the love of the best Mediterranean foods, Fuxia is a restaurant chain that also exists in Paris. The place includes both a restaurant and an Italian deli/gourmet shop. The restaurant cooks up three or four different dishes each day, so the menu varies daily. Its good food and the service staff is very friendly. Creative, hearty dishes can also be ordered as specials (formulae express lunchtime only on weekdays or formula aperitif: antipasti and two glasses of wine). The terrace is heated in winter, perfect to enjoy a limoncello sorbet any time of the year!

Les 2 Frangins

"Tasty Toppings"

The pizza at Les 2 Frangins is made with recipes that the company has cherished for more than four decades. With deliveries in minutes, you can enjoy their specialties at home or even in the workplace. While you are at the compact little pizza place, enjoy the various salads, drinks and a whole lot of pizza with all your favorite add-on's. The rich aroma alone makes your mouth water and the thin crust loaded with tasty toppings and garnished with herbs and spices is sure to appease your senses. Dig in!
