Pension Aller

"Good Home Comforts"

Although located close to the main station and the district of Sachsenhausen, Pension Aller is cozy and affordable, providing good home comforts without any frills. It is situated on the third floor of a sociologist's private home, so don't be surprised if you read about yourself in his next publication! The rooms are at the back of the house and are fairly quiet. The rooms are decorated in a style that pleases the eye. The staff is friendly and multilingual. Reservations should be made in advance. Check website for more details.

Acasa

"Comfortable Sojourn"

Housing only 6 rooms, Acasa is one of the smaller guesthouses in the city; however, the warm and amicable service is sure to make your stay a pleasant one. Each room is embellished in tune with a theme. The sunny Miami, historical Goethe, bright blue Piccolo, tropical Bahamas, romantic Montparnasse and the charming Rosegarden are the options to choose from. The rooms have an adjoining bathroom and are equipped with television and internet for your entertainment. Further amenities are available upon request. Guests are welcome to use the minibar, filled with snacks and cold drinks, located near the reception. Apart from the rooms, Acasa also provides furnished apartments for those who would like to enjoy their hospitality for a longer duration.
