Birmingham Pub

"Traditionally British"

Recreating a traditional British pub in the heart of Frankfurt am Main, Birmingham Pub always guarantees a good time. Situated in an area frequented by tourists, this pub is always bustling with energy, no matter when you drop by. During the day, it caters to tired tourists with some delicious burgers and schnitzel, not to mention beer. At night, though, the transformation into a late-night bar is seamless, attracting party animals and sports fans alike. Happy Hour from 6p to 9p is a good time to enjoy the selection of beer, whiskey and wine.

Harry's New York Bar

"A Classy Time for Drinks"

Tucked inside the swanky interiors of Lindner & Residence Main Plaza hotel, Harry's New York Bar is a sophisticated bar with a history of notable proportions. Since the opening of its first branch in Paris in the year 1911, Harry's New York Bar has not turned its back ever since. Drink a glass of chilled concoctions in a cozy ambiance of sublime lights and plush yet comfortable chairs. An open-air terrace is another striking feature which manages to pull in crowds in great numbers. Bring your lady-love along or even your friends to join you, on a night worth of drinking with a rare class.

O'Reilly's Frankfurt

"An Irish Experience"

Recreating the Irish pub scene in Frankfurt, O'Reilly's is a vibrant bar that promises its patrons, nothing but a fun time. A typical Irish pub is incomplete without beer, and this drink is available in plenty here. O'Reilly also offers a range of cocktails, wines, rums, whiskeys and liquors. A menu of tantalizing appetizers are also served here. Apart from two bars, this place also houses a Smoking Lounge and a room exclusively for playing billiards. The Shamrock Room is a great space to enjoy a night of karaoke with your friends.

Zum Gemalten Haus

"Traditional Hospitality and Local Fare"

Located in the heart of Sachsenhausen, the Zum Gemalten Haus is a pretty restaurant and a great place to sit and chat with friends. You may also get into conversation with the people at the next table, as that's the kind of place this is: the home of traditional Sachsenhausen hospitality. The menu is made up of local specialties, lots of thick soups, healthy salads and a variety of different meats served with sauerkraut. The menu also features a tempting variety of cheeses and a new dessert everyday.

Gute Stute

"The Good Mare"

Probably one of the quirkiest interiors you have seen in a while, the Guten Stute or the Good Mare is worth a visit. The uniqueness of this place will up your curiosity as it resembles a horse stable and the drinks menu will make you feel relaxed at the same time. The place is run by a friendly local named Ivo who makes sure that each guest feels welcome. The beer list is extensive and there are plenty of draft and bottled beers to choose from here.
