Club Voltaire

"Discuss Politics Over Drinks"

Club Voltaire, originally founded as a meeting place for left-wingers in the 1960s, has become something of an institution in Frankfurt. Remaining true to its namesake, Club Voltaire is still very much engaged with alternative ideas: the program includes discussions, lectures and political cabaret. The club, which stands in the shadow of 'Mainhattan', Frankfurt's high-rise banking district, is popular with young people and the young-at-heart who meet here to discuss how to redress life's injustices over a couple of beers or a jug of apple wine. Music events are also held here from time to time.

Apfelwein Dax

"Old Fashioned German Eatery"

An old-fashioned spot in Frankfurt where you will get good beers and interaction with fellow travelers is the Apfelwein Dax. This bar is very popular among tourists who visit this place for delicious German meals and good quality beer. Rustic interiors and fabulous drinks make it a place not to be missed. The service is warm and welcoming, ensuring diners are comfortable and well taken care of. Take a seat by the bar area or the tables and enjoy a pint of draft beer or a casual meal with friends.

Zum Gemalten Haus

"Traditional Hospitality and Local Fare"

Located in the heart of Sachsenhausen, the Zum Gemalten Haus is a pretty restaurant and a great place to sit and chat with friends. You may also get into conversation with the people at the next table, as that's the kind of place this is: the home of traditional Sachsenhausen hospitality. The menu is made up of local specialties, lots of thick soups, healthy salads and a variety of different meats served with sauerkraut. The menu also features a tempting variety of cheeses and a new dessert everyday.

Gute Stute

"The Good Mare"

Probably one of the quirkiest interiors you have seen in a while, the Guten Stute or the Good Mare is worth a visit. The uniqueness of this place will up your curiosity as it resembles a horse stable and the drinks menu will make you feel relaxed at the same time. The place is run by a friendly local named Ivo who makes sure that each guest feels welcome. The beer list is extensive and there are plenty of draft and bottled beers to choose from here.
