by Bar Oppenheimer

Bar Oppenheimer

"Round Midnight"

This small bar in Sachsenhausen has its own puritanical style; the decor is decidedly minimalist, the clientele well-dressed and cosmopolitan - a mix of business people, students and night owls. The drinks list includes a range of cocktails and long drinks which bear names like Cosmopolitan and Jamaica Night. There is also a selection of non-alcoholic cocktails and some 20 different sorts of whiskey to choose from.

Harry's New York Bar

"A Classy Time for Drinks"

Tucked inside the swanky interiors of Lindner & Residence Main Plaza hotel, Harry's New York Bar is a sophisticated bar with a history of notable proportions. Since the opening of its first branch in Paris in the year 1911, Harry's New York Bar has not turned its back ever since. Drink a glass of chilled concoctions in a cozy ambiance of sublime lights and plush yet comfortable chairs. An open-air terrace is another striking feature which manages to pull in crowds in great numbers. Bring your lady-love along or even your friends to join you, on a night worth of drinking with a rare class.

Jimmy's

"After-Dinner Cocktail Bar"

Jimmy's Bar housed in the very beautiful Hessischer Hof has been popular for decades. Named after its founder, Jimmy's is a blend of an upscale American bar and German hospitality. Guests have the choice of sitting at the bar or in one of the cozy armchairs. Just relax and enjoy one of the cocktails, long drinks or whatever you fancy. Several meat, fish and vegetarian dishes are offered and they are just like the guests: exclusive and well-presented. Live piano music and an impeccable service add to the overall popularity of this place.
