Cipriani Wall Street

"Grand Arena & Great Food"

Cipriani Wall Street is a magnificent piece of Greek architecture and is the former home to the NYSE, the US Customs House and the New York Merchants Exchange. Occupying an entire city block and an area of 16,000 square feet, it is framed by monolithic Corinthian columns amongst a backdrop of Greek architecture. Owned and maintained by the super wealthy Cipriani family, this is an ideal venue for weddings, parties and other events. The place is crowded with suave business executives and society ladies lunching in the afternoons. Celebrity spotting is a favorite pass-time at this place. Visit website for detailed menu.

Minetta Tavern

"Parisian Steakhouse"

Established in 1937, this tavern/restaurant was named after a brook that once flowed through Manhattan from the Collect Pond further north. Step inside, and you get immediately transported to post-depression New York, albeit with a more updated menu. Black and white tiles with dark, wood-paneled walls draw in the crowd. Today, Minetta Tavern is run by Keith McNally, the man behind Pastis and Balthazar. The dinner menu is highlighted by the cuts of beef, such as the dry-aged côte de boeuf served for two and the bone-in New York strip. The menu is seasonal and ever-changing, although you can always have traditional favorites like steak frites and burgers.

Gramercy Tavern

"Impeccable Dining Experience"

Chic and supremely popular, Gramercy Tavern is known among the Manhattan elite for its excellent service, superb food, plush interiors, and extensive wine list. The restaurant boasts two distinct dining options: you can enjoy a cozy, à la carte meal in the Tavern or indulge in the prix fixe experience in the Dining Room. Chef Michael Anthony proudly sources ingredients from local vendors, creating sensational dishes that change with the seasons. Whether you're snacking on treats like Wagyu pastrami and fluke tartare in the Tavern or reveling in courses like pork belly with peaches and strawberry brown butter cake for dessert in the Dining Room, you're sure to be amazed by Gramercy Tavern.

Peter Luger Steakhouse

"Porterhouse Steak and More"

The irresistible aroma of dry-aged steak welcomes diners at the Peter Luger Steakhouse. Here diners can most assuredly expect to receive top-quality meats and service. While Rib Steak and Single Steak are crowd pullers, Creamed Spinach, Apple Strudel, and Pecan Pie are quite famous too. Adding to the heart-warming experience is the amiable and courteous staff, who has got you covered. If you find yourself craving a hearty steak in Brooklyn, do head to the Peter Luger Steakhouse for a relishing meal.

Ilii

"A Mediterranean Delight"

Scrumptious babaganoush, irresistible falafel, and gooey Kashkaval cheese are only some of the perfectly executed dishes at this lavish Mediterranean-influenced Lebanese restaurant. Ilii is chic, refined Middle Eastern cuisine with sophisticated offerings like braised rabbit, lamb, and plum stew, and striped bass with a ragout of clams and herbs. The dining space glows amber, creating a backdrop for an unforgettable romantic night out. Reservations are recommended.

Koi

"Modern Sushi in New York"

Located in the Bryant Park Hotel, Koi restaurant is a good place to go to for sushi and delicious Japanese fare. Nicely done interiors with a white lattice canopy gives the place a classy look. Koi concocts an amazing range of sauces and attempts to blend the fiery and sweet flavors. Their crispy rice with spicy tuna, dragon roll, poached halibut, steamed Chilean sea bass, roasted shishito and coconut rice pudding are worth a try. The varied mojitos and martinis set the mood in this trendy restaurant.

Le Bernardin

"Seafood At Its Best"

In 1986, sibling owners Maguy and Gilbert Le Coze opened Le Bernardin in New York after finding phenomenal success with their flagship restaurant in Paris, established in 1972. The duo won numerous accolades at the helm of this culinary destination, and it has continued to thrive under Chef Éric Ripert after Gilbert's tragic demise in 1994. Seafood has been the inspiration behind the menu at Le Bernardin since its conception. The tasting menu takes diners through courses filled with delicacies like Osetra caviar, Dungeness crab, Lobster Tail, and Black Bass. Moreover, an extensive collection of around 900 wines complements every dish to perfection. Patrons can also enjoy delectable small plates and handcrafted cocktails from their eclectic lounge. The restaurant offers chic spaces for private dining too.
