The Webster

"Trendy Fashion & Exquisite Food"

This exquisitely renovated building was designed by Henry Hohaus in 1939. Formerly a hotel, today it houses two boutiques, a gallery space and an exclusive rooftop restaurant and lounge. Head to the ground floor store which has some great designer jeans and T-shirts along with fashionable swimwear and trendy sportswear. If you are looking for stylish clothing and accessories, then the second floor boutique will pamper you with choices. One thing is for sure that The Webster will give you a dazzling shopping experience.
