Angel City Brewery

"Fruity Craft Beer"

The Angel City Brewery is a microbrewery situated in the Arts District of Los Angeles. It prepares small batches of less than 10 craft beers, which can be found at various pubs around the city as well as at their public house and shop on-site. One of their most popular brew is the Belgian white ale Eureka! Wit, with coriander and orange peel, affording a fruity citrus flavor. Other beers include the Gold Line Pilsner, West Coast Wheat and Angeleno IPA. This brewery also offers tours and regular events such as Industry Nights, comedy shows and trivia contests.

San Antonio Winery

"L.A.'s Last Winery"

No visit to the City of Angels would be complete without a visit to San Antonio Winery, located just 5 minutes from the Civic Center. Designated by the city as a cultural landmark, this family-owned winery has been operating since 1917. The last of more than 100 wineries that once flourished near the Los Angeles River, San Antonio is legendary for its large variety of fine wines. The winery offers tastings and have a wine store where you can buy your favorite award winning wine. Go on a wine tour if you're interested in the history of the vineyard or how wine is made.
