Junko Hair Studio

"High-Class Salon"

Owner Junko Taniguchi brings an Asian flair and a bit of celebrity to this upscale hair salon. The Japanese native is highly visible in the Atlanta community and her salon has become a very trendy favorite, particularly among local Asians, who make up 40 percent of the regular clientele. The salon is modern and sleek with minimalist decor, featuring stark white walls and hardwood floors. Services offered include cuts, color, perms, facials and manicures. Appointments are necessary.

Van Michael Salon

"Top Dog in the Hair Game"

For years, this snazzy salon has been the top pick among hundreds of loyal local women. Offering the latest trends and the top stylists in town, it's tough to match the results of a visit to any one of the salon's several Atlanta locations. At Van Michael Salon, the pampering level is high, and so is the price tag, but expect to spend around two hours being given the royal treatment. The salon's popularity makes planning a necessity, and reservations are always required, often weeks in advance.
