Lowell's

"Food Tradition Since 100 Years"

While there is no dearth of places in Seattle serving traditional American fare, Lowell's is a great place because of its unparalleled view of the sea. And that too on all three floors! Get fine American burgers, steaks, sandwiches, fish n' chips, soups, chowder and more. The place is so popular that it is almost like an institution in itself, having been around since a hundred years. Enjoy a view of the sea while sipping on their signature Bloody Marys.

Cafe Campagne

"French Connections"

Located above Pike Place Market, this cozy and very popular country-style French bistro called Cafe Campagne, sibling of upscale Campagne, serves traditional French fare. Sit at a small wooden table by the large windows that overlook busy Post Alley or at the counter. For breakfast, try the Baked Eggs with tomato and chevre. For lunch, the Pan-roasted Salmon is an excellent choice. Breakfast and brunch is served on weekends from 8a to 4p.

Bacco Cafe

"Cozy Breakfast Spot"

Bacco Café is a great place to grab some breakfast or lunch before heading to explore the city. Their organic eggs prepared in the sunny side up style, scrambled or simply made into a great omelet are a must try. Although the menu is quite selective, each dish is a delight as the ingredients used all come from the organic produce stalls at the Pike Place Market. A number of fresh juice options are available to sip on along with the food. On warm summer days, you can sit out in their patio area and people-watch as you enjoy dishes like Brioche French Toast, Salmon Benedict and Chicken Caesar Salad.

Lola

"Mediterranean Feel"

Opened in 2004, Lola is yet another successful restaurant belonging to celebrated restaurateur Tom Douglas. The Greek-inspired menu combines local ingredients with Mediterranean freshness and simplicity. Try your hand at the sizzling Ouzo-splashed kebabs, bright-tasting Mezze and Lebanese Seven Spice Duck Breast. The dining area acquires its stylish look from earth colors, hand-painted chandeliers, and floor-to-ceiling windows. The menu changes daily, and the wine list includes some rare Greek wines and an inventive cocktail menu, so sip on your favorite drink and check out what's on offer for the day. Breakfast is served from 6a onward on weekdays, and 7a onward on weekends.

Macrina Bakery & Cafe

"Magnificent Macrina"

Macrina Bakery & Cafe is any dessert and bread lovers dream come true. With a series of menus for breakfast, lunch and brunch, this bakery might just be one of the best in Seattle. Try one their delicious and fluffy breads such as the Macrina Baguette or rye, or if you're here for breakfast then the brioche egg sandwich is a must try. Brunch just gets better with amazingly thin buttermilk waffles and the first square of the day. If you want to indulge your sweet tooth, then try a slice of carrot or red velvet cake, or cherry almond scones and morning glory muffins. The lunch menu is quite impressive too with simple yet delicious sandwiches and salads. The staff is friendly and the dishes are plated the way you would find at high end restaurants, along with generous side portions.

The 5 Point Cafe

"Dive-Style Diner"

The 5 Point Cafe is a neighborhood dive bar and restaurant that offers sumptuous American comfort food, including roast beef sandwich, Cuban marinated pulled pork sandwich, burgers and homemade chili soup. This popular cafe is open day and night and is acclaimed as one of the best dive bars in the city due to its inexpensive prices and down-to-Earth atmosphere. The unpretentious decor has a few unusual twists, such as a moose head that's covered in bras or some risqué Polaroids behind the bar. Make sure you check out the great deals during their Happy Hour.

Toulouse Petit Kitchen and Lounge

"The Big Easy in Seattle"

A taste of New Orleans in the heart of Queen Anne, Toulouse Petit Kitchen and Lounge is a refreshing addition to Seattle's culinary scene. The extensive menu features Louisiana Creole cuisine - an eclectic blend of European, Native American and Southern flavors. Generous portions of sumptuous seafood, charcuterie, meat preparations and interesting sides form the centerpiece of your dining experience and are best enjoyed with a drink or two from the well-stocked bar. Boasting one of the best happy hours in the country, creative cocktails like the Toulouse Hurricane or Katie-Mae deserve special mention. Ornate wrought-iron furniture and delightful ceiling-lamps against the floor-to-ceiling glass windows enhance its rustic appeal.

Hi-Spot Cafe

"Funky Decor & Great Food"

Spread through several floors of an old Victorian house, Hi-Spot Cafe serves breakfast, lunch and dinner to Madrona regulars and visitors from other neighborhoods. Comprised of variations on standard egg dishes, burritos and pastries, breakfast here feels like a bed-and-breakfast without the bed. The lunch menu also favors standards such as soups, sandwiches and salads, all well-prepared. The more adventurous dinner menu changes frequently, so ask for suggestions and be bold. Expect a wait on weekend mornings.

Dish Cafe

"Great Weekend Breakfast Joint"

The Dish Café in Ballard is a great place to cure a hangover late on a weekend morning. The spot is so popular and tiny you'll probably have to wait a while for a table. Once inside, you'll find the standard breakfast fare: omelets, eggs benedict, French toast, pancakes, waffles. There is one thing about Dish that makes it truly outstanding, and that is the red country potatoes that come with most breakfasts. Roasted, diced, mixed with onions and seasonings, diners may find themselves eating their entire portion of potatoes, while neglecting the rest of the meal.

Bryant Corner Cafe

"Breakfast Akin to Home"

The weekend breakfast at Sunflour Bakery & Cafe is a treat for the senses with its rich flavors and aromas. The French toast deserves a special mention for its tantalizing quality that compels one to continue eating even when the stomach is full. Pancakes and salmon are other options that make for a memorable meal here. Try the various baked items that are freshly prepared including the vast selection of pastries, breads and muffins that are a good mid-day snack. The atmosphere is quite homey, with a friendly staff adding to the experience.
